Relationships The Gifts Of Life:

Love: the Most Precious Gift of Life Pejman Aghasi, 2007-08 Love is the only hope It is only because of love that man finds it possible to reach god If there were no love there would be no religion no prayer If there were no love there would be no creativity no music no dance no art no poetry If there were no love there would be no beauty no friendship no happiness no intimacy All that is valuable in life comes through love Love is the source of all that is nourishing and fulfilling Love is the only heavenly phenomenon on this earth Everything else is earthly therefore it is only through love that one can reach to god and heavenly states of being Without love life becomes dull repetitive and unfulfilling Love The Most Precious Gift of Life shows us that we must live with love because that is the only way to really live The deeper and realer your love is the deeper and more meaningful your life is We must think of love and life as being the same and synonymous If love has so many blessings why do many couples struggle and face so many difficulties in their relationships In the second part of Love The Most Precious Gift of Life the root social and psychological causes of these conflicts are uncovered and a solution for solving each problem is also presented And in doing so it helps us to keep our relationships healthy and intimate and enable us to embrace love and through love reach to our highest potential which is self realization and enlightenment The gift of life

J.M. Vorster, 2021 The concept human life and what it entails have become a prominent idea in current theological ethical discourses especially in the growing Christian reflection on bioethics eco ethics and social justice Contemporary Christian ethicists focus on concepts such as flourishing life happiness and joy and how these deep human desires can be realised and fulfilled in life today amidst perennial surges of racism xenophobia sexism systemic violence and policies and structures which further poverty and other forms of social injustices Christian soteriology and subsequent moral agency grapples with the question How can humans flourish in societies today and how should Christian morality be defined and designed to be instrumental in the current pursuit of happiness joy and hope This publication aims to participate in this modern day discourse by proposing relevant theological perspectives on the concept of life and in particular its relevance for Christians living in this age and in an environment that poses major challenges to public morality and the common good In conjunction with the emerging theological interest in the concept of life this project is a modest attempt to take part in the advancement of an ethic of life for today under the rubric of an ethic of flourishing personhood The point of departure is the biblical concept of the gift of life and what this gift entails for understanding human life personhood and moral agency today The line of reasoning in this book delineates the broad concept ethic of life and the biblical concept gift of life and draws the line towards an ethic of flourishing personhood The central theoretical argument of the study is that reformed theology can give direction to the contemporary theological search for meaning and purpose of human life and offer answers to the questions on life facing humanity today especially by pursuing the idea of flourishing personhood Gift of Life Roberta G.

The Gift of the Self
Matthew Harp, 2021-08-25 A preliminary cruciform theology using the metaphor of a gift as its thematic principle this book is intended to articulate a foundation for a Christian theology centered around the concept of God's Way of self gift Using the Cross of Christ as a starting point for a doctrine of God The Gift of the Self utilizes insights from biblical studies the sciences and Open and Relational Theology to construct a Christian framework that is compatible with the life and death of Jesus Christ as fully revelatory of God's Personhood This book engages issues of systematic theology metaphysics and ethics in hopes to deconstruct and reconstruct a conceptualization of God's character and power that is most consistent with the Cross as well as a vision for the vocation of the community of faith Finally a seven day liturgy thematized around generosity and the book's primary topics is included so that the reader might become more spiritually formed around this fresh contextualization of the ancient Christian faith As such the underlying purpose of The Gift of the Self is to construct a plausible Christian worldview for a post Christian context rooted totally in the Way of Christ as an alternative to some of the dominant forms of historic Christianity that do not take seriously the Cross's critique of unilateral power and communal exclusivity The author intends that embracing this worldview oriented by self gift can help transform the Church from a power seeking organization to a peace seeking community

Gift of Parenthood Elizabeth Marie Galloway-Evans,2009-04-08 This book concentrates on the relationship between parents and their children It brings to light what children are asking parents to be for them in their lives As parents we feel that we are the ones that have expectations and dreams for our children when in reality the expectations that children have of us are far more explicit and expansive than what we ask of them The funny thing about this is that if we meet their expectations of who it is that we need to be in their lives they will exceed our dreams of what we want for them in their lives The Gift of
