Religion And Conservation:

Faith in Conservation Martin Palmer, Victoria Finlay, 2003-01-01 This book arising from over twenty years experience of working with the world's major faiths draws extensively upon joint World Bank and ARC Alliance of Religion and Conservation WWF World Wildlife Fund for Nature projects world wide It shows through stories land management myths investment policies legends advocacy and celebration the role the major faiths have do and can play in making the world a better place The major faiths are the oldest institutions in the world and have survived essentially because they are constantly evolving and changing There is much to be learnt by newer institutions such as the World Bank and the multitudes of NGOs about how to remain true to what you believe but change and grow as you develop The book explores issues of climate change forestry asset management education and biodiversity protection and does so using the techniques of the great faiths storytelling example and celebration It reveals a variety of world views and it asks us to see that our personal view may be just one amongst many The challenge of living with integrity in a pluralist world underlies the book and it offers models of how diversity is crucial in attempting to ensure we have a sustainable world Religion and Nature Conservation

Radhika Borde, Alison A Ormsby, Stephen M Awoyemi, Andrew G Gosler, 2022-10-31 This book presents a broad array of global case studies exploring the interaction between religion and the conservation of nature from the viewpoints of the religious practitioners themselves With conservation and religion often being championed as allies in the quest for a sustainable world where humans and nature flourish this book provides a much needed compendium of detailed examples where religion and conservation science have been brought together Case studies cover a variety of religions faiths and practices including traditional Indigenous Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Jainism Judaism Shinto and Zoroastrianism Importantly this volume gives voice to the religious practitioners and adherents themselves Beyond an exercise in anthropology ethnobiology and comparative religion the book is an applied work seeking the answer to how in a world of nearly eight billion people we might help our own species to prevent the extinction of life This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of nature conservation environment and religion cultural geography and ethnobiology as well as practitioners and professionals working in conservation Religion and Conservation, 1999 Contributed essays released on the occasion of the National Consultation on Religion and Conservation at New Delhi on 21 April 1999

Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb Faiths in Green Lukas Szrot, 2021-05-03 Faiths in Green addresses the complex and fraught relationship between religious identity and environmental concern in the United States particularly how that relationship has changed over time Examining the effects of religious upbringing belonging and disaffiliation on environmental concern across multiple religious groups over several decades the author shows where when how and why religious groups and their memberships have responded constructively to environmental change over time The author also visits the effects of gender social class race and politics on both religion and environmental concern in the U S

Faiths in Green offers an in depth and accessible guide to understanding the at times incongruous relationship between religious beliefs and motivations as well as ways to follow cultural shifts that both drive and are driven by religious persons and institutions In examining how religious and cultural factors are linked to environmental concern over time Faiths in Green demonstrates the importance of morality and worldviews in confronting global hazards of unprecedented scale

The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature: K-Z Bron Raymond Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005 The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature originally published in 2005 is a landmark work in the burgeoning field of religion and nature It covers a vast and interdisciplinary range of material from thinkers to religious traditions and beyond with clarity and style Widely praised by reviewers and the recipient of two reference work awards since its publication see www.religionandnature.com ern this new more affordable version is a must have book for anyone interested in the manifold and fascinating links between religion and nature in all their many senses

Religion and Environmentalism Lora Stone, 2020-07-01 A foundational resource for readers investigating religiously motivated environmentalism this book provides both a global overview of the subject and a detailed discussion of key figures concepts organizations events and documents Beginning in the late 1960s a growing number of activists scholars and scientists asserted that traditional religions had been major contributors to the environmental crisis In response theologians religious organizations and religiously motivated activists became increasingly involved in environmental issues At the same time emerging nature based belief systems emphasized values and lifestyles based in environmentalism More recently religiously motivated environmentalism has become a powerful force in shaping environmental policy and human action globally and has joined with secular environmentalism to address related issues This book explores the background and current state of religious environmentalism The book begins with an overview essay examining the history and context of religious environmentalism and its significance today A chronology then profiles the most important events related to religious environmentalism A section of more than 50 alphabetically arranged reference entries follows with each entry providing objective information about people places events movements works and other topics The entries include cross references and suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a selected annotated bibliography of major works

Religion and Consumer Behaviour Gaurav Gupta,Mandakini Paruthi,Shivinder Nijjer,2023-02-28 Religion is an important part of individual lives playing a major role in our decision making and purchasing Understanding the influence of religion on consumer behaviour is therefore an essential practice for business The COVID 19 pandemic has especially enhanced the influence of consumers religiosity on their consumption decisions This book concentrates on understanding the relationship of religiosity with various aspects of consumption and consumer behaviour to improve policy and build on an under represented topic In this edited collection expert contributors academicians and researchers discuss the influence of religion on consumer behaviour in depth including the dark side of religion on consumers consumption behaviour and religious cults The chapters also explore the ethical issues surrounding consumption and the role of religion on branding and sustainable practices With a broad perspective the book draws on examples of practices from Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism This book will be a particularly valuable resource for scholars and upper level students of marketing consumer behaviour and consumer psychology The interdisciplinary perspectives will also appeal to those studying sociology and globalization

Sacred Natural Sites Bas Verschuuren,Robert Wild,Jeffrey Mcneely,Gonzalo Oviedo,2012-06-25 Sacred Natural Sites are the world s oldest protected places This book focuses on a wide spread of both iconic and lesser known examples such as sacred groves of the Western Ghats India Sagarmatha Chomolongma Mt Everest Nepal Tibet and China the Golden Mountains of Altai Russia Holy Island of Lindisfarne UK and the sacred lakes of the Niger Delta Nigeria The book illustrates that sacred natural sites although often under threat exist within and outside formally recognised protected areas heritage sites Sacred natural sites may well be some of the last strongholds for building resilient networks of connected landscapes They also form important nodes for maintaining a dynamic socio cultural fabric in the face of global change The diverse authors bridge the gap between approaches to the conservation of cultural and biological diversity by taking into account cultural and spiritual values together with the socio economic interests of the custodian communities and other relevant stakeholders

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion Jo Fraser-Pearce,James W. Fraser,2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion provides the first truly global scan of contemporary issues and debates around the world regarding the relationships between the state schools and religion Organized around specific contested issues from whether or not mindfulness should be practised in schools to appropriate and inappropriate religious attire in schools to long term battles about evolution sexuality and race to public funding Fraser Pearce and Fraser carefully curate chapters by leading experts exploring these matters and others in a diverse range of national settings The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion offers a refreshingly new international perspective

Religions and Development Emma Tomalin,2013-07-03 Religion has been excluded from development studies for decades Religious traditions have contributed greatly towards development work yet major international players have tended to ignore its role Recent years have shown a noticeable shift in development policy practice and research to recognize religion as a relevant factor This text provides a comprehensive insight into different approaches towards the understanding the relationships between religions and development studies policy and practice It guides readers through current debates presenting explaining and critically evaluating a broad range of literature and locating it within a theoretical context The text explores the role of religion within development from positive contributions such as the important role that many faith based organizations play in education or health care to more complicated and contested notions of impact such as religiously inspired violence or gender inequality The book begins with three background chapters outlining the relevance of religions for development studies policy and practice and introducing the reader to the study of development and of religions Following these the focus then shifts to examine a number of thematic areas including religion gender and development and the implications of the rise of religion for mainstream development studies policy and practice in the 21st century Each chapter contains a range of features to assist undergraduate learning including learning objectives for each chapter discussion of key concepts summaries discussion questions further reading and websites The book also contains over sixty boxed case studies to provide further definition explanation and examples of the interactions between religions and development globally This innovative text presents religions as something that can both obstruct and aid development encouraging readers to engage critically with the multiple ways that religion impacts on both the conceptualization of development as well the resulting project interventions This will be of interest to undergraduate postgraduate students and scholars interested in religious studies development studies and the broader study of societies and cultures

Muslim Environmentalisms Anna M. Gade, 2019-08-20 How might understandings of environmentalism and the environmental humanities shift by incorporating Islamic perspectives In this book Anna M Gade explores the religious and cultural foundations of Islamic environmentalisms She blends textual and ethnographic study to offer a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of the legal ethical social and empirical principles underlying Muslim commitments to the earth Muslim Environmentalisms shows how diverse Muslim communities and schools of thought have addressed ecological questions for the sake of this world and the world to come Gade draws on a rich spectrum of materials scripture jurisprudence science art and social and political engagement as well as fieldwork in Indonesia and Southeast Asia The book brings together case studies in disaster management educational programs international development conservation projects religious ritual and performance and Islamic law to rethink key theories Gade shows that the Islamic tradition leads us to see the environment as an ethical idea moving beyond the established frameworks of both nature and crisis Muslim Environmentalisms models novel approaches to the study of religion and environment from a humanistic perspective reinterpreting issues at the intersection of numerous academic disciplines to propose a postcolonial and global understanding of environment in terms of consequential relations

Religion, Globalization, and Culture Peter Beyer, Lori G. Beaman, 2007-10-30 This volume brings together over 25 articles by many of the most important authors who have worked on issues directly related to the theme of religion and globalization. An additional emphasis on culture flags the inclusion of the relation of religion to its wider social context and also permits questioning the boundaries of religion so as to avoid a strong bias in favour of the analysis of institutionalized religion. The key emphasis of the book however is the focus specifically on religion, a topic that is still largely ignored in the burgeoning literature on globalization. The articles are divided into five subthemes: theoretical issues, historical approaches to religion and globalization, forms and boundaries of religion, key issues such as ecology and gender, and regional perspectives. Contributors: Afe Adogame, Elisabeth Arweck, Lori Beaman, Peter Beyer, John Boli, Gary Bouma, Dave Brewington, George Van Campbell, Jos Casanova, Paul Freston, Nobutaka Inoue, Laurel Kearns, Otto Maduro, Vasilios Makrides, Meredith McGuire, Vincenzo Pace, Rubina Ramji, James T. Richardson, Ole Riis, Roland Robertson, Marie Andr e Roy, Shandip Saha, John H. Simpson, James V. Spickard, William Stahl, George Thomas, Bryan Turner, Margit Warburg, and Michael Wilkinson.

A Greener Faith Roger S. Gottlieb, 2009-10. World making political agenda that far exceeds interest group politics applied to forests and toxic incinerators. Rather, religious environmentalism offers an all inclusive vision of what human beings are and how we should treat each other and the rest of life. Gottlieb analyzes the growing synthesis of the movement's religious, social and political aspects as well as the challenges it faces in consumerism, fundamentalism and globalization.

Religious Tourism and the Environment Kiran A. Shinde, Daniel H. Olsen, 2020-09-30. The remarkable growth in religious tourism across the world has generated considerable interest in the impacts of this type of tourism. Focusing here on environmental issues, this book moves beyond the documentation of environmental impacts to examine in greater depth the intersections between religious tourism and the environment. Beginning with an in depth introduction that highlights the intersections between religion, tourism and the environment, the book then focuses on the environment as a resource or generator for religious tourism and as a recipient of the impacts of religious tourism. Chapters included discuss such important areas as theological views, environmental responsibility and host perspectives.

Culture and the Environment in the Himalaya Arjun Guneratne, 2009-12-24. Drawing on Himalayan ethnography to interrogate and critique contemporary theorizing about the environment, this book examines how the environment is conceptualized among different social groups in the region. A new approach to the study of the environment in South Asia, this book introduces the new thinking in environmental anthropology and geography into the study of the Himalaya.
