Religion and Empire, 2007      Religion and Power Jione Havea, 2020-07-07 Religion has power structures that require and justify its existence spread its influence and mask its collaboration with other power structures Power like religion is in collaboration Along this line this book affirms that one could see and study the power structures and power relations of a religion in and through the missions of empires Empires rise and roam with the blessings and protections of religious power structures e g scriptures theologies interpretations traditions that in return carry propagate and justify imperial agendas Thus to understand the relation between religion and power requires one to also study the relation between religion and empires Christianity is the religion that receives the most deliberation in this book with some attention to power structures and power relations in Hinduism and Buddhism The cross cultural and inter national contributors share the conviction that something within each religion resists and subverts its power structures and collaborations The authors discern and interrogate the involvements of religion with empires past and present political and ideological economic and customary systemic and local The upshot is that the book troubles religious teachings and practices that sustain as well as profit from empires

Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves, 2017-08-31 In our troubled world protective hospitality is tragically necessary and requires informed shared action and belief on behalf of the threatened other In Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves argues that protective hospitality and its faith based foundations as seen in the Abrahamic traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam merit greater theological attention Reaves shows that the practice of protective hospitality in Christianity can be enhanced by a better understanding of Jewish and Muslim practices of hospitality as well as of their codes and etiquettes related to honour Safeguarding the Stranger draws on a contextual and political theological approach informed by liberation and feminist theologies as viewed through the lens of a co operative and complementary theological view which is influenced by inter religious Abrahamic and hospitable approaches to dialogue forecasting the positive role that religions can play in resolving conflicts What Christians Can Learn From Buddhism
