Radde-Antweiler, Xenia Zeiler, 2020-10-29 The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Journalism is an outstanding reference source to the key topics challenges past and present global issues and debates in this exciting subject The first collection of its kind this volume comprises over 25 chapters by a team of international contributors This Handbook is divided into five parts each taking global developments in the field into account Theoretical Reflections Power and Authority Conflict

Radicalization and Populism Dialogue and Peacebuilding Trends Within these sections central issues debates and developments are examined including religious and secular press ethics globalization gender datafication differentiation journalistic religious literacy race and religious extremism This volume is essential reading for students and researchers in journalism and religious studies This Handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as sociology communication studies media studies and area studies Exploring the Postsecular, 2010-05-17 The re emergence of the religious in secular domains has led prominent scholars such as Jürgen Habermas and Charles Taylor to speculate about a new postsecular age The alleged shift from the secular to the postsecular is most visible in the spheres of urban public space governance and civil society This volume addresses contemporary relations between religion politics and urban societies primarily from a theoretical perspective while also paying attention to empirical manifestations of the central conceptual ideas The primary focus is the relations between public religion deprivatization of religion and theorizations of modernity and modernities with the secondary and closely related focus on theorizing postsecular urbanism including the role of faith based organizations FBOs in cities Contributors include Justin Beaumont James A Beckford Luke Bretherton Paul Cloke Candice Dias Wilhelm Gr b Maaïke de Haardt Jason Hackworth Christoph Jedan Kim Knott Michiel Leezenberg Bernice Martin David Martin Gregor McLennan Arie L Molendijk Nihan zdemir S nmez Martijn Oosterbaan Andy F Sanders Anke Schuster and Hetty Zock Traveling Spirit Masters Deborah Kapchan, 2007-10-26 The sacred and musical phenomenon of trance

Preaching Islamic Renewal Jacqueline G. Brinton, 2015-10-27 The book is an in depth study of Muhammad Mitwall Sha rawi one of the most important religious figures in late twentieth century Egypt Sha rawi was an advisor to the rulers of Egypt as well as being the first Arab television preacher At the height of his career it was estimated that up to 30 000 000 people tuned in to his show each week Much of the academic literature that focuses on Islam in modern Egypt repeats the claim that traditionally trained Muslim scholars suffered the loss of religious authority Sha rawi however is an example of a well trained Sunni scholar who became a national media sensation He used television for the purpose of renewing religion by popularizing long held theological and ethical beliefs Provided by publisher Religion and Media Hent de Vries, Samuel Weber, 2001 Counter The twenty five contributors to this volume who include such influential thinkers as Jacques Derrida

Jean Luc Nancy Talal Asad and James Siegel confront the conceptual analytical and empirical difficulties involved in addressing the complex relationship between religion and media The book s introductory section offers a prolegomenon to the multiple problems raised by an interdisciplinary approach to these multifaceted phenomena The essays in the following part provide exemplary approaches to the historical and systematic background to the study of religion and media The third part presents case studies by anthropologists and scholars of comparative religion The book concludes with two remarkable documents a chapter from Theodor W Adorno s study of the relationship between religion and media in the context of political agitation The Psychological Technique of Martin Luther Thomas s Radio Addresses and a section from Niklas Luhmann s monumental Die Gesellschaft der Gesellschaft Society as a Social System

Islam, Culture and Women in Asia

Firdous Azim,2013-10-18 An examination of the place of religion especially Islam in political and cultural life took on a special urgency after the events of 9 11 The essays in this volume concentrate on the way that Islam impacts on the everyday lives of people who reside in societies where Islam plays a large part The relationship between Islam and women has always been seen as problematic and by highlighting women s negotiations with this religion this volume seeks to understand the many and various strategies and connections that are made and their political and cultural ramifications By keeping an Asian focus the authors also seek to understand the wide panorama that Islamic societies inhabit and the manifold political and cultural expressions that ensue from this The effort is not only to break the image of a monolithic structure and set of beliefs but also to highlight on the ground negotiations and the ways that women in particular find spaces within Islamic structures and discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of Inter Asia Cultural Studies

The Fourth Gospel in First-Century Media Culture

Anthony Le Donne,Tom Thatcher,2013-05-03 Werner Kelber s The Oral and the Written Gospel substantially challenged predominant paradigms for understanding early Jesus traditions and the formation of written Gospels Since that publication a more precise and complex picture of first century media culture has emerged Yet while issues of orality aurality performance and mnemonics are now well voiced in Synoptic Studies Johannine scholars remain largely unaware of such issues and their implications The highly respected contributors to this book seek to fill this lacuna by exploring various applications of orality literacy memory and performance theories to the Johannine Literature in hopes of opening new avenues for future discussion Part 1 surveys the scope of the field by introducing the major themes of ancient media studies and noting their applicability to the Fourth Gospel and the Johannine Epistles Part 2 analyzes major themes in the Johannine Literature from a media perspective while Part 3 features case studies of specific texts Two responses by Gail O Day and Barry Schwartz complete the volume

Collective Memory Narratives in Contemporary Culture Antonella Pocecco, Estrella Gualda, Emiliana Mangone, 2023-11-27 Starting from the central importance of memory in contemporary societies this book encourages a transdisciplinary reflection on how the presentification of the past is never a simple reenactment but corresponds to the interaction between memory and cultural sensitiveness present beliefs and needs expectations and forecasts for the future It studies cultural re construction through collective stories including academic debates media narratives collective mobilizations state narratives of history architectural reconstructions and artistic expressions It looks at how technological innovations have profoundly changed the practices of conservation and dissemination of collective memory with particular reference to cultural digitization Finally it shows that the relevance and selection of events the organization of connections and cross references between past present and future as well as the importance of diversified collective imaginaries are the keys to narrative constructions of memory that prove to be sensitive and decisive for its continuity and its intergenerational transmission This interdisciplinary collection is for students and scholars of the social sciences cultural studies and the humanities interested in memory studies

Global Media Discourse David Machin, Theo Van Leeuwen, 2007-05-17 Featuring a wide range of exercises examples and images this textbook provides a practical way of analyzing the discourses of the global media industries Building on a comprehensive introduction to the history and theory of global media communication specific case studies of lifestyle and entertainment media are explored with examples from films global women s magazines Vietnamese news reporting and computer war games Finally this book investigates how global media communication is produced looking at the formats languages and images used in creating media materials both globally and in localized forms At a time when the media is becoming increasingly global often with the same films news and television programmes shown all over the world Global Media Discourse provides an accessible lively introduction into how globalization is changing the language and communicative practices of the media Integrating a range of approaches including political economy discourse analysis and ethnography this book will be of particular interest to students of media and communication studies applied linguistics and critical discourse analysis The Dead Sea Scrolls in Ancient Media Culture ,2023-02-13 Media studies is an emerging discipline that is quickly making an impact within the wider field of biblical scholarship This volume is designed to evaluate the status quaestionis of the Dead Sea Scrolls as products of an ancient media culture with leading scholars in the Dead Sea Scrolls and related disciplines reviewing how scholarship has addressed issues of ancient media in the past assessing the use of media criticism in current research and outlining potential directions for future discussions Memory and the Jesus Tradition Alan Kirk,2018-02-22 Alan Kirk argues that memory theory in its social cultural and cognitive dimensions is able to provide a comprehensive account of the origins and history of the Jesus tradition one capable of displacing the moribund form critical model He shows that memory research gives new leverage on a range of classic problems in gospels historical Jesus and Christian origins scholarship This volume brings together 12 essays published between 2001 and 2016 newly revised for this edition and organized under the rubrics of Memory and the Formation of the Jesus Tradition Memory and Manuscript Memory and Historical Jesus Research and Memory in 2nd Century Gospel Writing The introductory essay written for this volume argues that the old form critical model in marginalizing memory abandoned the one factor actually capable of accounting for the origins of the gospel tradition its manifestation in oral and written media and its historical trajectory The Dictionary of the Bible and Ancient Media Tom Thatcher,Chris Keith,Raymond F. Person, Jr.,Elsie R. Stern,2017-10-19 The Dictionary of the Bible and Ancient Media is a convenient and authoritative reference tool introducing specific terms and concepts helpful to the study of the Bible and related literature in ancient communications culture Since the early 1980s biblical scholars have begun to explore the potentials of interdisciplinary theories of oral tradition oral performance personal and collective memory ancient literacy and scribality visual culture and ritual Over time these theories have been combined with considerations of critical and exegetical problems in the study of the Bible the history of Israel Christian origins and rabbinics The Dictionary of the Bible and Ancient Media responds to the rapid growth of the field by providing a source of reference that offers clear definitions and in depth discussions of relevant terms and concepts and the relationships between them The volume begins with an overview of ancient media studies and a brief history of research to orient the reader to the field and the broader research context of the book with individual entries on terms and topics commonly encountered in studies of the Bible in ancient media culture Each entry defines the term concept under consideration then offers more sustained discussion of the topic paying particular attention to its relevance for the study of the Bible and related literature Transcultural Communication Andreas Hepp, 2015-04-27 In Transcultural Communication Andreas Hepp provides an accessible and engaging introduction to the exciting possibilities and inevitable challenges presented by the proliferation of transcultural communication in our mediatized world Includes examples of mediatization and transcultural communication from a variety of cultural contexts Covers an array of different types of media including mass media and digital media Incorporates discussion of transcultural communication in media regulation media production media products and platforms and media appropriation
