

MARRIAGE POEMS

A romantic silhouette of a bride and groom. The bride is on the right, holding a large bouquet of flowers. The groom is on the left, looking up at her. They are set against a soft, hazy background that suggests a sunset or sunrise.

- A Word To Husbands

To keep your marriage brimming
With love in the loving cup,

- London

I wandered through each chartered street,
Near where the chartered Thames does flow,

- Let Me Not To The Marriage Of True Minds

Let me not to the marriage of true minds
Admit impediments. Love is not love

- Habitation

Marriage is not a house or even a tent

- Indian Weavers

Weavers, weaving at break of day,
Why do you weave a garment so gay?

- Call It A Good Marriage

Call it a good marriage -
For no one ever questioned

- The Wedding

O marriage-bells, your clamor tells
Two weddings in one breath.

- A Marriage Of Two

is for love that is true

Romantic and Victorian Long Poems Adam Roberts, 2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this is a guide which provides easy access to a fairly complete range of the long poetry written in the Romantic and Victorian periods epics narrative poems verse novels and other work of over a certain length The format provides title author length of work and prosodic description Texts are then summarized according to the internal divisions Each poem is accompanied by an objective summary and the poems as a whole are preceded by an introduction which advances a particular argument as to why the nineteenth century was so fascinated with the length that was the ultimate aesthetic rationale for the long poem

British Women Poets of the Long Eighteenth Century Paula R. Backscheider, Catherine E. Ingrassia, 2022-10-01 This anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 British women poets of the long eighteenth century Few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers Paula R Backscheider and Catherine E Ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women's experiences as writers Backscheider and Ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces They include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections Their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared To generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers It fills the persistent need to document women's poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded
