Longitudinal Field Research Methods George P. Huber, Andrew van de Ven, 1995-08-02 Eleven papers some of which have appeared previously as contributions to the journal Organizational Science emphasize a range of methodological issues involved in longitudinal field research including ethnographic methods longitudinal and comparative case studies event history analysis and real time tracking of events as well as procedural Longitudinal Field Research Methods for Studying Processes of Organizational Change George P. Huber, Andrew H. Van de Ven, 1990 Handbook of Research Methods in Organizational Change David B. Szabla, David Coghlan, William Pasmore, Jennifer Kim, 2023-08-14 The Handbook of Research Methods in Organizational Change offers innovative and practical information to aid in the successful implementation of research methodologies Written by a collective of experienced scholars it provides inspiration for future academics wishing to advance research into human system changes Nonprofit Governance Chris Cornforth, William A. Brown, 2013-07-04 The current fashion for rolling back the state has seen the nonprofit or third sector playing an increasing role in what were previously the heartlands of the public sphere The growing significance of the sector and its increasing reliance on public funds mean it has also attracted increased scrutiny From outside the sector concerns have been raised about the accountability and performance of nonprofit organizations From within the sector there has been considerable debate about whether the increased reliance on government contracts is in danger of undermining the sector's independence As a result the spotlight has fallen on governance arrangements and whether they are adequate to ensure that nonprofit organizations are effective and accountable for their actions and able to retain their independence This collection offers a comprehensive assessment of research on the governance of nonprofit organizations Nonprofit governance research has been dominated by the study of boards of unitary organizations and has paid insufficient attention to the multi level nature of governance governance relationships and dynamics and the contribution of actors other than board members to governance processes Drawing on the research of leading scholars in the US UK Canada and Australia this book presents new perspectives on nonprofit governance which help to overcome these weaknesses Written in an accessible manner the book will be of value to scholars researchers students reflective practitioners and governance consultants and advisers
