Where appropriate the attempt is made to present contrasting perspectives and views particularly on issues where there is ongoing controversy. The American Medical Society on Alcoholism and the Research Society on Alcoholism have undertaken this collaborative venture because of the perceived need for such a comprehensive resource. These groups are both component organizations of the National Council on Alcoholism, a broad based coalition which supports alcoholism treatment, training and research on a national and international level. This professional network has enabled us to draw on a panel of Associate Editors and on authors of international prominence.
