Voices from the North Jan Ohman, 2018-05-08 While contemporary human geography has widely acknowledged that knowledge has both contingent and contextual character international literature has tended to blot out differences and reproduce hegemonic Anglo Saxon discourses Any interest in destabilizing such power knowledge systems calls upon interventions from other voices Nordic voices in particular have not been well represented in current human geography This book redresses the balance by offering a unique assessment of the geographical research being undertaken in the Nordic countries and by demonstrating the way in which these voices contribute to international debate It brings together a range of Nordic authors each of whom has made a significant contribution to such debates and considers the relationship between production and social institutions in local development It also examines the ambiguous role of the welfare state in the Nordic countries issues of social practice and identity and their relationship to spatiality new approaches to landscape and environment and the significance of difference and relations of power Theoretical discussion illustrated by empirical examples reveals the interweaving in Nordic human geography of international affiliations and Nordic situatedness Breaking the Silence Bob Riddle,1994 Defiant Desire Edwin Cameron,Mark Gevisser,2013-09-13 Defiant Desire records the lives of lesbian and gay South Africans of all races as they have lived in the face of censure denial and oppression The history of gay identity in South Africa is here in its past and present aspects from a drag salon in Woodstock to a gay shebeen in kwaThema from a church in a Pretoria nightclub to Johannesburg s lesbian and gay pride march from Afrikaans love poetry to new activism The book is a document of lesbian and gay struggle and indispensable for those interested in the sexual politics coursing beneath the country s troubled passage to democracy
