Summary Catalogue of European Decorative Arts in the J. Paul Getty Museum Gillian Wilson, Catherine Hess, 2002-03-07 J Paul Getty had a passion for the exquisitely made furniture and decorative objects of eighteenth century France which he began collecting in the 1930s. Gillian Wilson, curator of decorative arts since 1971, has broadened and strengthened the collection, adding Boulle furniture, mounted oriental porcelain tapestries, clocks, ceramics, and more. In the 1980s and 1990s the Museum continued to enlarge its decorative arts holdings, creating a European sculpture department in 1984 and adding glass, maiolica, goldsmiths' work, pietre dure, and furniture from Italy and Northern Europe. This book is a revised and expanded edition of Decorative Arts: An Illustrated Summary Catalogue of the Collection of the J. Paul Getty Museum 1993. In addition to more than forty recent acquisitions, among these four wall sconces from Versailles that once belonged to Marie Antoinette and an elaborate upholstered bed from the collection of Karl Lagerfeld, it includes the results of years of research. Designed for scholars, students, and devotees of the decorative arts, this volume provides a comprehensive look at the Getty's fine collection.

Language in the Visual Arts Leslie Ross, 2014-07-02 This book discusses text and image relationships in the history of art from ancient times to the contemporary period across a diversity of cultures and geographic areas. Focusing on the use of words in art and words as art forms, thematic chapters include Pictures in Words, Words in Pictures, Word Picture Puzzles, Picture Word Puzzles, Words as Images, The Power of the Word, and Monumental and Moving Words. Chapter subsections further explore cross-cultural themes. Examining text and image relationships from the obvious to the elusive, the puzzling to the profound, the minor to the major, the book demonstrates the diverse ways in which images and writing have been combined through the ages and explores the interplay between visual and written communication in a wide range of thought-provoking examples. A color insert is included.

Global Objects Edward S. Cooke, Jr., 2022-10-04 A bold reorientation of art history that bridges the divide between fine art and material culture through an examination of objects and their uses. Art history is often viewed through cultural or national lenses that define some works as fine art while relegating others to the category of craft. Global Objects points the way to an interconnected history of art, examining a broad array of functional, aesthetic objects that transcend geographic and temporal boundaries and challenging preconceived ideas about what is and is not art. Avoiding traditional binaries such as East versus West and fine art versus decorative art, Edward Cooke looks at the production, consumption, and circulation of objects made from clay, fiber, wood, and nonferrous base metals. Carefully considering the materials and process of making and connecting process to product and people he demonstrates how objects act on those who look at use and acquire them He reveals how objects retain aspects of their local fabrication while absorbing additional meanings in subtle and unexpected ways as they move through space and time In emphasizing multiple centers of art production amid constantly changing contexts Cooke moves beyond regional histories driven by geography nation state time period or medium Beautifully illustrated Global Objects traces the social lives of objects from creation to purchase and from use to experienced meaning charting exciting new directions in art history

The Life Cycle of Russian Things Matthew P. Romaniello, Alison K. Smith, Tricia Starks, 2021-09-09 The Life Cycle of Russian Things re orients commodity studies using interdisciplinary and comparative methods to foreground unique Russian and Soviet materials as varied as apothecary wares isinglass limestone and tanks It also transforms modernist and Western interpretations of the material by emphasizing the commonalities of the Russian experience Expert contributors from across the United States Canada Britain and Germany come together to situate Russian material culture studies at an interdisciplinary crossroads Drawing upon theory from anthropology history and literary and museum studies the volume presents a complex narrative not only in terms of material consumption but also in terms of production and the secondary life of inheritance preservation or even destruction In doing so the book reconceptualises material culture as a lived experience of sensory interaction The Life Cycle of Russian Things sheds new light on economic history and consumption studies by reflecting the diversity of Russia's experiences over the last 400 years

Architecture in Nineteenth-Century Photographs Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Revealing that nineteenth century photography goes beyond the functional to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time this study proposes that each photographic image of architecture be studied both as a primary visual document and an object of aesthetic inquiry This multi faceted approach drives Architecture in Nineteenth Century Photographs Essays on Reading a Collection Despite three decades of post colonial post structuralist and gender conscious criticism the study of architectural photography continues to privilege technical virtuosity This volume offers a thematic exploration of the material and a socio historical examination that allows consideration of questions that have not been addressed comprehensively before in a single publication Themes include exoticism and armchair tourism the absence of women from architectural photography the role of photographs as commodities vernacular architecture and the picturesque and historic preservation urban renewal and nationalism Micheline Nilsen analyzes photographs from France and England the two countries where photography was invented and from around the world representing a corpus of over 10 000 photographs from the Janos Scholz Collection of Nineteenth Century Photographs of the Snite Museum of Art at the University of Notre Dame
