Nobody Rides for Free Bonanza D. Jones, 2014-02-12 From the late 1970s through the mid 1980s I was an American hitchhiker. I hitched across the entire United States and back twice. Once I made it from Portland Oregon to Baltimore Maryland in four and a half days. On another trip I hitched from Birmingham Alabama to Baltimore in twenty hours. I hitched down the East Coast and up the West Coast. I rode across Nebraska in the back of a pickup truck with a driver who wouldn't stop for anything and spent the night in a school bus in Bodega Bay California. I endured a continuous stream of homosexual advances from drivers in the Bay Area and was terrified by a pack of wild dogs while squatting on Crow Indian land. I hopped a freight train in Portland Oregon and spent the night under the famous Space Needle in Seattle Washington. I almost got busted in Montana for smoking pot out of an empty beer can and was hassled by cops in New Orleans and Texas. I narrowly escaped injury at the hands of commercial fishermen in Boston who caught me sleeping in their boat and had the bejesus scared out of me by a sixty five year old Massachusetts woman who used her 1963 Rambler as an offensive weapon. I met a bunch of gay guys truck drivers stoners petty thieves ex cons heavily armed rednecks and some very nice people too. I was a lot younger then but I wouldn't trade those experiences for the world. You hardly ever see hitchhikers anymore but a few years ago we were everywhere. But before I launch into my story a brief history lesson is in order. Godey's Lady's Book
