Looking At Pictures With Bernard Berenson:

Looking at Pictures with Bernard Berenson Bernard Berenson, 1974 Botticelli's Secret: The Lost Drawings and the Rediscovery of the Renaissance Joseph Luzzi, 2022-10-25

One of The New Yorker's Best Books of the Year A lively book Luzzi brilliantly sets the operatic stage of vibrant violent Renaissance Florence and brings to life the characters who helped resurrect Botticelli Max Norman Wall Street Journal Some five hundred years ago Sandro Botticelli a painter of humble origin created works of unearthly beauty A star of Florence's art world he was commissioned by a member of the city's powerful Medici family to execute a near impossible project to illustrate all one hundred cantos of The Divine Comedy by Dante Alighieri the ultimate visual homage to that divine poet This sparked a gripping encounter between poet and artist between the religious and the secular between the earthly and the evanescent recorded in exquisite drawings by Botticelli that now enchant audiences worldwide Yet after a lifetime of creating masterpieces including Primavera and The Birth of Venus Botticelli declined into poverty and obscurity His Dante project remained unfinished Then the drawings vanished for over four hundred years The once famous Botticelli himself was forgotten The nineteenth century rediscovery of Botticelli's Dante drawings brought scholars and art lovers to their knees this work embodied everything the Renaissance had come to mean From Botticelli's metaphorical rise from the dead in Victorian England to the emergence of eagle-eyed connoisseurs like Bernard Berenson and Herbert Horne in the early twentieth century and even the rescue of precious art during World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 the posthumous story of Botticelli's Dante drawings is if anything even more dramatic than their creation A combination of artistic detective story and rich intellectual history Botticelli's Secret shows not only how the Renaissance came to life but also how Botticelli's art helped bring it about and most important why we need the Renaissance and all that it stands for today

An Anthropologist Looks at History A. L. Kroeber, 2023-11-15 This title compiles influential essays by Alfred Kroeber written in the last decade of his life reflecting his deep exploration of human culture civilization and history through an anthropological lens Curated by Milton Singer and Theodora Kroeber this collection showcases Kroeber's unique perspective on the intersections of anthropology history and the humanities Rather than focusing solely on ethnology or linguistic analysis Kroeber broadens his scope to address questions about style civilization patterns and the historical continuity of cultures His view of anthropology as a young evolving science with ancient philosophical roots demonstrates his belief in the discipline's role in understanding human progress The volume aims to engage both historians and anthropologists by presenting Kroeber's reflections on culture and the human condition especially for a generation of scholars and students whose approach to anthropology is less historically oriented Kroeber's personal approach to his field developed over a lifetime of teaching and exploring anthropological themes such as Culture Growth emphasizes the evolving nature of culture as an aggregate that shapes civilizations and values By tracing Kroeber's intellectual journey the book underscores the importance of historical context in anthropology positioning it as a field capable of enriching broader humanistic inquiries and advancing our understanding of civilization's aesthetic, ethical, and structural evolution. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high quality peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1963.

Filippino Lippi Paula Nuttall, Geoffrey Nuttall, Michael Kwakkelstein, 2020-07-20. Filippino Lippi 1457-1504, although one of the most original and gifted artists of the Florentine Renaissance, has attracted less scholarly attention than his father Fra Filippo Lippi or his master Botticelli, and very little has been published on him in English. This book, authored by leading Renaissance art historians, covers diverse aspects of Filippino Lippi's art: his role in Botticelli's workshop; his Lucchese patrons; his responses to Netherlandish painting; portraits, space, and temporality; the restoration of the Strozzi Chapel in Santa Maria Novella; his immediate artistic legacy; and finally, his nineteenth-century critical reception. The fourteen chapters in this volume were originally presented at the international conference Filippino Lippi: Beauty, Invention, and Intelligence held at the Dutch University Institute NIKI in Florence in 2017. A Life In Pictures Alasdair Gray, 2010-10-04. Alasdair Gray is Scotland's best-known polymath. Born in 1934 in Glasgow, he graduated in design and mural art from the Glasgow School of Art in 1957. After decades of surviving by painting and writing TV and radio plays, his first novel, the loosely autobiographical blackly fantastic Lanark, opened up new imaginative territory for such varied writers as Jonathan Coe, A. L. Kennedy, James Kelman, Janice Galloway, and Irvine Welsh. It led Anthony Burgess to call him the most important Scottish writer since Sir Walter Scott His other published books include 1982 Janine Poor Things winner of the Whitbread Award The Book of Prefaces The Ends of our Tethers and Old Men in Love In this book with reproductions of his murals portraits landscapes and illustrations Gray tells of his failures and successes which have led his pictures to be accepted by a new generation of visual artists Renaissance Papers 2000 Philip Rollinson, Men Viewing Women as Art Objects Christoph E. Schweitzer, 1998 Varied images of women studied in a variety of German texts as a springboard for plot or character A man looks at the portrait of a woman and then sets out to liberate her and make her his own Die Zauberflöte Maria Stuart an oldman while looking at the picture of his youthful beloved reminisces about his failed courtship Storms Immensee These are just two of many uses of art works depicting women discussed in this book The art work can displace the living woman as in Hauff's Die Bettlerin vom Pont des Arts in Jensen's Gradiva and in Schimmang's Intimität A man looking at a painting of himself E. T. A. Hoffmann's Die Fermate or a man looking at a sculpture comes to appreciate the beauty of the female figure both in art and life Stifter's Der Nachsommer The innovative approach which in part goes back to theories developed by Lessing in his Laokoon yields via a close reading of a variety of the texts new insights into their structure and meaning Sofonisba's Lesson Michael W. Cole, 2019 Within a span of seven or eight years in the 1550s the Italian painter Sofonisba Anguissola produced more self portraits than any known painter before her had in a lifetime She was the first known artist in history to take her parents and siblings as primary subject matter and may have painted the first group portrait featuring only women Cole examines Sofonisba's paintings as expressions of her relationships and networks looking at why Sofonisba was able to become a great woman artist at her father who decided to allow her to be educated as a painter at her teacher Bernardino Campi and at her relationships with her students sisters and patrons who included the Queen of Spain Cole demonstrates that Sofonisba made teaching and education a central theme of her painting The book also provides the first complete catalogue of all of Sofonisba's known works Julian Trevelyan Philip Trevelyan, 2013 Julian Trevelyan Picture Language follows the trail of a painter's visual language and motivation The working life of Julian Trevelyan 1910-88 spanned more than 65 years In that time he exhibited alongside Picasso Mir and Dalí was a member of the British Surrealist group an active participant in the Mass Observation Movement taught both at Chelsea School of Art and the Royal College of Art and wrote a number of books After the Second World War his work was mainly concerned with depicting scenes around his Hammersmith home and the River Thames where he lived with his wife Mary Fedden as well as his travels around the world Philip Trevelyan Julian's son takes us on a pictorial journey through Julian's life and presents here his personal view offering insights from his researches and first hand knowledge of life in Trevelyan's studio at Durham Wharf in London Giovanni Bellini Davide Gasparotto, 2017-10-10 Praised by Albrecht Dürer as being the best in painting Giovanni Bellini ca 1430-1516 is unquestionably the supreme Venetian painter of the quattrocento and one of the greatest Italian artists of all time His landscapes assume a prominence unseen in Western art since classical antiquity Drawing from a selection of masterpieces that span Bellini's long and successful career this exhibition catalogue focuses on the main function of landscape in his oeuvre to enhance the meditational nature of paintings intended for the private devotion of intellectually sophisticated elite patrons The subtle doctrinal content of Bellini's work the isolated crucifix in a landscape the sacred conversation the image of Saint Jerome in the wilderness is always infused with his instinct for natural representation resulting in extremely personal interpretations of religious subjects immersed in landscapes where the real and the symbolic are inextricably intertwined This volume includes a biography of the artist essays by leading authorities in the field explicating the themes of the J Paul Getty Museum's exhibition and detailed discussions and glorious reproductions of the twelve works in the show including their history and provenance function iconography chronology and style

The Place of the Viewer Kerr Houston, 2019-05-07 In recent decades art historians and critics have occasionally emphasized a dynamic embodied mode of looking accenting the role of the viewer and the complex interplay between beholders and works of art In The Place of the Viewer Kerr Houston shows that an attention to the position and physical experiences of beholders has in fact long informed art historical analyses and that close study of the theme can lead to a fuller understanding of the discipline the act of viewership and individual works of art Simultaneously attentive to historical ideas and contemporary scholarship this book identifies a vein of thought that has been generally overlooked and proposes new ways of seeing familiar works and traditions

Art History Michael Hatt, Charlotte Klonk, 2006-04-30 This book provides a lively and stimulating introduction to methodological debates within art history Offering a lucid account of approaches from Hegel to post colonialism the book provides a sense of art history's own history as a discipline from its emergence in the late eighteenth century to contemporary debates

Old Masters Worldwide Susanna Avery-Quash, Barbara Pezzini, 2020-10-15 As a result of the Napoleonic wars vast numbers of Old Master paintings were released on to the market from public and private collections across continental Europe The knock on effect was the growth of the market for Old Masters from the 1790s up to the early 1930s when the Great Depression put an end to its expansion This book explores the global movement of Old Master paintings and investigates some of the changes in the art market that took place as a result of this new interest Arguably the most important phenomenon was the diminishing of the traditional figure of the art agent and the rise of more visible increasingly professional dealerships firms such as Colnaghi and Agnew's in Britain Goupil in France and Knoedler in the USA came into existence Old Masters Worldwide explores the ways in which the pioneering practices of such businesses contributed to shape a changing market
