her confusion humor and anger toward the strange world of emergency street medicine As her career on the ambulance progressed she found herself taking notes on scraps of paper the backs of gloves and in the margins of EKG printouts She listened to her patients stories left food out for their pets and turned off the stove under their oxtail stews Once she read half a poem left in a dead woman s typewriter She learned about the history that brought ambulances into their current role as the caretakers of society s forgotten and spoke to her colleagues about their own experiences and perspectives Those reflections are collected here in a series of raw powerful essays about the state modern healthcare Sokol s life as a paramedic took her to three different counties the casinos and trailer parks of the Nevada desert the cozy beach town of Santa Cruz and eventually the crowded tenements of San Francisco s Tenderloin district There are no clear villains or heroes in Sokol s world only a group of patients and medics who are doing their best in a deeply broken system Combining impactful research compassionate reflections on her most memorable patients and the strong voices of her fellow paramedics Sokol takes readers deep into the everyday reality of 911 first responders offering insight empathy and a reminder of both the power and limitations of care

The Ladies' Repository ,1861 The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey s Lady s Book and Snowden s Lady s Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Early Dramas Friedrich Schiller,1901 Holy-days and holidays, a treasury of historical material, sermons, poetry [&c.] relating to holy days and holidays, compiled by E.M.
