Excerpt from Lord Chesterfield's Letters to His Son and Godson, Selected With Introduction, Biographical Sketch and Notes. I will therefore suppose for argument's sake for upon no other account can it be supposed that all the vices above mentioned were perfectly innocent in themselves; they would still degrade, vilify and sink those who practiced them; would obstruct their rising in the world by debasing their characters and give them a low turn of mind and manners absolutely inconsistent with their making any figure in upper life and great business. The Best Letters of Lord Chesterfield Philip Dormer Stanhope, 2015-07-04. Excerpt from The Best Letters of Lord Chesterfield. Letters to His Son and Letters to His Godson. It is a singular fate that has overtaken Lord Chesterfield. One of the more important figures in the political world of his time, one of the few Lord Lieutenants of Ireland whose name was afterwards respected and admired, the first man to introduce Voltaire and Montesquieu to England, and the personal acquaintance of men like Addison and Swift, Pope and Bolingbroke, the ally of Pitt and the enemy of three Georges, though he married a king's daughter and took up the task of the world's greatest emperor, yet the record of his actions has passed away, and he is remembered now only by an accident. Lord Chesterfield lives by that which he never intended for publication, while that which he published has already passed from the thoughts of men. It is one more example of the fact that our best work is that which is our heart's production. We have Lord Chesterfield's secret, and it bears witness to the strength of that part of him in which an intellectual anatomist has declared him to be deficient, a criticism which is but another proof of that which has been somewhere said of him that he has had the fate to be generally misunderstood Yet nothing is more certain than that Lord Chesterfield did not mean to be anything but inscrutable Dissimulation is a shield he used to say as secrecy is armour About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Best Letters of Lord Chesterfield Philip Dormer Stanhope Chesterfield (Ear,Edward Gilpin Johnson,2013-12 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to ensure edition identification The Best Letters Of Lord Chesterfield Letters To His Son And Letters To His Godson Laurel crowned Letters 9 Philip Dormer Stanhope Chesterfield Earl of Edward Gilpin Johnson Edward Gilpin Johnson A C McClurg and company 1893 History General Conduct of life History General Self Help General Lord Chesterfield Philip Dormer Stanhope Earl of Chesterfield,1936 Lord Chesterfield Philip Dormer Stanhope Earl of Chesterfield,1949
