and the Sea Anthony Smith,2015-02-26 Octogenarian Anthony Smith s journey was originally inspired by both the Kontiki Expedition of Thor Heyerdahl who he knew and the incredible story of the survivors of a 1940 boat disaster who spent 70 days adrift in the Atlantic eventually reaching land emaciated and close to death While this might sound like a voyage no one would wish to emulate to octogenarian Anthony Smith it sounded like an adventure and he placed a typically straightforward advertisement in the Telegraph that read Fancy rafting across the Atlantic Famous traveller requires 3 crew Must be OAP Serious adventurers only In his inimitable style Smith details their voyage and the hardships they endured with a matter of fact air that makes his story seem all the more impressive His advanced age allows him a wider perspective not only on the journey but on life itself and his never say die attitude to the difficulty of the journey is inspirational Old men ought to be explorers said T S Eliot and this book certainly gives a compelling argument in his favour It is both a great story a huge storm on the final night of the voyage almost wrecked them on a reef and a call to action for the older generation do not go quietly says Anthony Smith but seek out adventure as long as you are able The Rough Guide to Ecuador & the
