What They Meant for Evil Rebecca Deng, 2019-09-10 Many stories have been told about the famous Lost Boys but now for the first time a Lost Girl shares her hauntingly beautiful and inspiring story One of the first unaccompanied refugee children to enter the United States in 2000 after South Sudan s second civil war took the lives of most of her family Rebecca s story begins in the late 1980s when at the age of four her village was attacked and she had to escape What They Meant for Evil is the account of that unimaginable journey With the candor and purity of a child Rebecca recalls how she endured fleeing from gunfire suffering through hunger and strength sapping illnesses dodging life threatening predators lions snakes crocodiles and soldiers alike that dogged her footsteps and grappling with a war that stole her childhood Her story is a lyrical captivating portrait of a child hurled into wartime and how through divine intervention she came to America and found a new life full of joy hope and redemption

Dark Exodus Beverly Parkhurst Moss, 2008 The civil war which broke out in Sudan in the early 1980s left hundreds of thousands of Sudanese Southerners dead The dispossessed victims who survived often had to trek hundreds of miles to reach overfilled poorly constructed refugee camps Of the few female refugees who received passage to other countries a handful ended up in the Dallas Texas metroplex Dark Exodus is a collection of sixteen women s heartrending stories of struggle and survival in a time and place of utmost turmoil and tragedy Page 4 of cover

Women and Wars Carol Cohn, 2013-09-04

Where are the women In traditional historical and scholarly accounts of the making and fighting of wars women are often nowhere to be seen With few exceptions war stories are told as if men were the only ones who plan fight are injured by and negotiate ends to wars As the pages of this book tell though those accounts are far from complete Women can be found at every turn in the gendered phenomena of war Women have participated in the making fighting and concluding of wars throughout history and their participation is only increasing at the turn of the 21st century Women experience war in multiple ways as soldiers as fighters as civilians as caregivers as sex workers as sexual slaves refugees and internally displaced persons as anti war activists as community peace builders and more This book at once provides a glimpse into where women are in war and gives readers the tools to understand women s told and untold war experiences in the greater context of the gendered nature of global social and political life

Hope, Pain & Patience Friederike Bubenzer, Orly Stern, 2011

As in many post conflict countries the roles played by women during Sudan s long lasting liberation struggle continue to go unrecognised Thousands of women joined the southern liberation struggle in response to a political situation that affected whole communities leaving the comfort and security of their homes not just to accompany their husbands but to fight for freedom democracy equity justice rights and dignity As well as playing roles in the fighting women acted as mothers teachers and nurses and filled numerous other roles during the war The long standing struggle for the liberation of South Sudan severely altered traditional gender roles as well as the societal structure as a whole Women also suffered during the war An increase in HIV hunger and violence particularly sexual violence characterised their lives in Sudan as well as in exile for many years Life in the post conflict period continues to be challenging as women try to carve out a meaningful life in a tenuous peace This volume documents the lives of different groups of women in South Sudan It seeks to understand the contributions made by a range of women both during the conflict and today It describes the women of South Sudan who they are what they have experienced what they hope and feel what they experienced in the war and whether the end of the war has brought meaningful change Back cover Identity and Power in Narratives of Displacement Katrina M.

Powell,2015-02-11 In this book Powell examines the ways that identities are constructed in displacement narratives based on cases of eminent domain natural disaster and civil unrest attending specifically to the rhetorical strategies employed as barriers and boundaries intersect with individual lives She provides a unique method to understand how the displaced move within accepted and subversive discourses and how representation is a crucial component of that movement In addition Powell shows how notions of human rights and the public good are often at odds with individual well being and result in intriguing intersections between discourses of power and discourses of identity Given the ever increasing numbers of displaced persons across the globe and the layers of displacement experienced by many this study sheds light on the resources of rhetoric as means of survival and resistance during the globally common experience of displacement If My Father Dies I Give Birth to Him Again: Selected Writings of Kola Boof Editor Mark Fogarty,2009-06 Kola Boof is an extravagantly talented writer IF MY FATHER DIES I GIVE BIRTH TO HIM AGAIN gives her what she s due for being an accomplished writer of fiction poetry and memoir This selected writings contains excerpts from her best work NILE RIVER WOMAN DIARY OF A LOST GIRL LONG TRAIN TO THE REDEEMING SIN FLESH AND THE DEVIL
