The Path to Salvation in Luke's Gospel MiJa Wi, 2019-05-23 This book investigates Luke s message of salvation in relation to socio economic issues and thus concerns salvation of the rich as well as the poor With a narrative reading of Luke s Gospel built on careful examination of its socio economic context it demonstrates that Luke s message of salvation is best understood as 1 Divine mercy which champions the cause of the poor and redresses the injustice of the world 2 Its human embodiment and 3 Divine reward promised to those who enact mercy Wi argues that Luke s question of what must we do juxtaposes salvation with doing posing interesting questions with respect to the salvation of the rich This volume highlights good news to the poor in terms of divine mercy and justice shows that the reception of divine mercy calls for practices which embody it and above all clarifies Luke s notion of salvation of the rich which will happen as participation in the salvation of the poor Wi s conclusion challenges its readers by asking the question along with Luke s audience What must we do Acts of the Apostles Ronald J. Allen, 2013-05-01 Acts of the Apostles helps the preacher identify possibilities for sermons based on texts and themes in the book of Acts While offering a basic exegetical framework for interpreting passages in Acts in their historical literary rhetorical and theological contexts this volume also suggests ways in which the preacher can relate passages and motifs from Acts to the congregation and world today It also is useful in classes that seek to link text and sermon and for congregational Bible study Throughout his commentary Ron Allen examines the relationship of Acts to the Gospel of Luke discussing parallel passages between the two volumes and observing how themes in the Gospel carry forward into Acts He notes how particular passages contribute to developing themes and to how the awareness of such a theme can contribute to the preacher s work with a particular passage An appendix will posit several sermon series that the preacher could develop on the book of Acts making the book especially useful to ministers who do not follow the lectionary Jesus in Context Darrell L. Carey, 2024-10-29. This book provides an extended introduction to the scripture translations of Biraban, an Awabakal man and the missionary Lancelot Threlkeld. It examines Threlkeld's linguistic field work in Raiatea prior to coming to New South Wales. It places the translations he undertook in the context of Australian missionary linguistics and the rapid advance of the settler frontier for which he was a key eyewitness. It analyses the motivation and collaboration between Biraban and Threlkeld in the light of discoveries of new manuscripts, including that of the Gospel of St Matthew, as well as Threlkeld's personal diary, neither of which have previously been analysed. The review includes a linguistic and ethnographic analysis of the complete corpus of Biraban and Threlkeld's collaboration. It includes a complete list of the Threlkeld manuscripts and the many printed editions, including those available online. For historical purposes, it includes a copy of the unique standalone edition of the Gospel of Saint Luke presented by the editor James Fraser to the British and Foreign Bible Society. The original is now in Cambridge University Library. It also includes a full digitisation of Threlkeld's autograph manuscript, illuminated by Annie Layard in Auckland City Library. Is Forgiveness Possible? Joan Mueller, 1998.
