the very nature of dehumanization remains relatively poorly understood The Routledge Handbook of Dehumanization is the first comprehensive and multidisciplinary reference source on the subject and an outstanding survey of the key concepts issues and debates within dehumanization studies Organized into four parts the Handbook covers the following topics The history of dehumanization from Greek Antiquity to the 20th century contextualizing the oscillating boundaries dimensions and hierarchies of humanity in the history of the West How dehumanization is contemporarily studied with respect to special contexts as part of social psychology as part of legal studies or literary studies and how it connects to the idea of human rights disability and eugenics the question of animals and the issue of moral standing How to tackle its complex facets with respect to the perpetrator s and the target s perspective metadehumanization and selfdehumanization rehumanization social death status and interdependence as well as the fear we show toward robots that become too human for us Conceptual and epistemological questions on how to distinguish different forms of dehumanization and neighboring phenomena on why dehumanization appears so paradoxical and on its connection to hatred essentialism and perception Essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy history psychology and anthropology this Handbook will also be of interest to those in related disciplines such as politics international relations criminology legal studies literary studies gender studies disability studies or race and ethnic studies as well as readers from social work political activism and public policy
