Focusing on Europe the Americas and Japan art historians archaeologists and a literary scholar discuss how different museum and academic traditions national as well as disciplinary notions of value and authenticity or colonialism impacted the fate of collections. The texts offer detailed documentation of degrees of destruction by spectacular acts of defacement demolition discarding or neglect. They also shed light on the accompanying discourses regarding aesthetic ideals political ideologies educational and scholarly practices or race. With destruction being understood as a critical part of reception the histories of cast collections defy the traditional homogenous narrative of rise and decline. Their diverse histories provide critical evidence for rethinking the use and display of plaster cast collections in the contemporary moment. Aux origines d'un pôle scientifique Laurent Rollet, Marie-Jeanne Choffel-Mailfert, 2007 Le monde contemporain de la Lorraine, 1997 Planification urbaine Xavier Desjardins, 2020-08-19 Cet ouvrage a pour ambition de former les étudiants et les professionnels aux enjeux de la planification urbaine.
