The Long Labrador Trail Dillon Wallace,2018-05-09 In the summer of 1903 when Leonidas Hubbard Jr went to Labrador to explore a section of the unknown interior it was my privilege to accompany him as his companion and friend The world has heard of the disastrous ending of our little expedition and how Hubbard fighting bravely and heroically to the last finally succumbed to starvation Before his death I gave him my promise that should I survive I would write and publish the story of the journey In The Lure of The Labrador Wild that pledge was kept to the best of my ability While Hubbard and I were struggling inland over those desolate wastes where life was always uncertain we entered into a compact that in case one of us fall the other would carry to completion the exploratory work that he had planned and begun Providence willed that it should become my duty to fulfil this compact and the following pages are a record of how it was done Not I but Hubbard planned the journey of which this book tells and from him I received the inspiration and with him the training and experience that enabled me to succeed It was his spirit that led me on over the wearisome trails and through the rushing rapids and to him and to his memory belong the credit and the honor of success The Lure of the Labrador Wild Dillon
