Lushai Chrysalis:

Wild Races Lalruatkima, 2024-01-05 This book analyzes the narrative dynamics of social formations in British India using statistical and ethnographic records visual cultures and linguistic exercises to describe the British Empire's production of knowledge about so called strange new worlds Lalruatkima then labels these narrative dynamics as scripturalizing to account for the creation or writing of these worlds into existence This focus underscores empire as one of many such formations imagined against the backdrop of contested conversations about what it is and what it could be When reverse engineered empire throws into sharp relief its constituent narrative placeholders and the sequences of meaning making that connect them Power differentials between the imperial center and frontier determine the placeholders and how they fit into the larger narrative These discursive components in turn engender the politically charged attitudes and relations within the imperial domain Lalruatkima excavates the imperial archive for material that accounts for these narrative dynamics

Lushai Chrysalis Anthony Gilchrist McCall, 1977 Mizoram, Dimensions and Perspectives, 2008 Contributed articles From Dust to Digital Maja Kominko, 2015-02-16 Much of world's documentary heritage rests in vulnerable little known and often inaccessible archives Many of these archives preserve information that may cast new light on historical phenomena and lead to their reinterpretation But such rich collections are often at risk of being lost before the history they capture is recorded This volume celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Endangered Archives Programme at the British Library established to document and publish online formerly inaccessible and neglected archives from across the globe From Dust to Digital showcases the historical significance of the collections identified catalogued and digitised through the Programme bringing together articles on 19 of the 244 projects supported since its inception These contributions demonstrate the range of materials documented including rock inscriptions manuscripts archival records newspapers photographs and sound archives and the wide geographical scope of the Programme Many of the documents are published here for the first time illustrating the potential these collections have to further our understanding of history The Mizo

Discovery of the British Raj Kyle Jackson, 2023-11-02 A history of Mizoram in Northeast India from the Indigenous perspectives of encounters with the British Empire from the 1890s to the 1920s Mizoram Rintluanga Pachuau, 2009 Annotation The publication of Mizoram A Study in Comprehensive Geography is a new contribution to the description and analysis of regional geography of India Re-searching Transitions in Indian History Radhika Seshan, Shraddha Kumbhojkar, 2018-06-27 The idea of transitions in Indian history emerged early when the term transition denoted shifts from one period to another The notion of transition itself has moved beyond being primarily economic to include dimensions of society culture and ideology This volume brings together scholarly works that re examine and re define the concept of transition by looking into a range of subjects including religion culture gender caste and community networks maritime and mercantile modes ideas of nationalism and historiographies across geographical and temporal settings With contributions by leading scholars from South Asia this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of ancient history modern Indian history sociology and social anthropology and South Asian studies

Empire's Backyard Kailash Baral, 2025-10-03 This book transcends traditional historical analysis to explore the intricate tapestry of colonialism modernity and identity formation in Northeast India Moving beyond a simplistic view of the region as the British Empire's backyard it examines the transformative processes that turned Northeast India beyond Sylhet the empire's eastern outpost into a vibrant frontier While recognizing the importance of exploration and territorial expansion in establishing colonial dominance the narrative emphasizes the crucial roles of resistance and local agency in shaping the region's history The volume critically analyzes the influence of the Church as a powerful force within the civilizing mission alongside military interventions It dissects the complex relationship between colonialism and modernity revealing how the rhetoric of progress often concealed motives of resource extraction and cultural disruption Through a meticulous unraveling of structures systems and processes the work weaves a compelling narrative of Northeast India not as a passive recipient of colonial ideas its imposition of alien rules and values but as a region actively shaped by the interplay of power resistance and adaptation This book will be of interest to scholars researchers and students of history sociology colonial and postcolonial studies cultural studies and South Asian studies especially those concerned with Northeast India

Making of Mizoram Suhas Chatterjee, 1994 Despite seclusion the Mizo Union leaders of Mizoram erstwhile Lushai Hills had a penchant for the mainstream politics But the appeal of Nehru's liberalism and constitutionalism suffered a set back because of manipulative Assam politics Laldenga formed the Mizo National Front to establish Sovereign Mizoram He was brainwashed by the colonialist forces But his revolt plunged Mizoram into a horrible insurgency causing unprecedented bloodbath in North East India China and Pakistan fished in the troubled waters The changed international situation However compelled the MNF supremo to realize his mistake He sought refuge in the constitutionalism Rajiv Gandhi gave that opportunity when MNF abjured violence Laldenga became the legitimate chief minister He was dismissed being betrayed by his own party men

Census of India, 1961: India India. Office of the Registrar,India. Office of the Registrar General,1962 Other Combatants, Other Fronts James Kitchen,Alisa Miller,Laura Rowe,2011-01-18 The First World War is a subject that has fascinated the public as well as the academic community since the close of hostilities in 1918 Over the past thirty years in particular the historiography associated with the conflict has expanded considerably to include studies whose emphases range between the economic social cultural literary and imperial aspects of the war all coinciding with revisions to perceptions of its military context Nevertheless much of the discussion of the First World War remains confined to the experiences of a narrow collection of European armies on the battlefields of Northern France and Belgium This volume seeks to push the focus away from the Western Front and to draw out the multi spectral nature of the conflict examining forgotten theatres and neglected experiences The chapters explore the question of what total war meant for the lives of people around the world implicated in this momentous event broadening current debates on the First World War as well as developing reinforcing and refining the existing categories of analysis The chapters are grouped into sections that reflect neglected elements of the transnational interpretation of the conflict and aspects of the total war debate These encompass alternative forms of mobilisation issues of neutrality ideas of racial identity and the scope of violence The volume thus not only expands First World War studies but also contributes to the wider discourse on the shifting nature of warfare in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries With chapters by leading scholars and early career researchers this volume draws on a diverse range of original archival research undertaken across disciplinary and national boundaries The contributions to the volume provide an analysis of the conflict that draws out its full breadth and complexity The First World War demonstrated the critically important relationship between national mobilisation and total war and saw multiple mobilisations and re mobilisations of European populations This theme is explored at the national regional and local levels through examinations of the Sicilian province of Catania the role of science in France and Britain and the utilisation of the narrative of maritime heroism surrounding the British sailor Jack Cornwell For Europe s neutrals the First World War was often as total in its effects as for those states engaged in military operations Chapters analyse the diverse range of these experiences of neutrality from the economy and people of the Netherlands to the attitudes of Switzerland s intellectuals Racial interpretations of modern conflict have defined much of the historiography of total war The complexities of racial analysis with respect to total war are highlighted in chapters dealing with white colonial internees in German East Africa the treatment of prisoners of war in Europe and the recruitment of India s primitive peoples for service in labour units The final section of the volume considers the scale and broad scope of the violence unleashed during the First World War Chapters on the continuation of German naval war culture after the conflict the shaping of personal narratives of the war in the Ottoman Empire and anti alien violence among veterans in Canada serve to reinforce the extent to which the conflict affected wider aspects of twentieth century history around the globe Other Combatants Other Fronts sheds light on the diverse experiences of neutral and belligerent states and their combatants and civilians during the tumultuous events of 1914 18 This brings to the fore the extent to which the mechanisms of conflict developed during the struggle had a truly global reach and the impact this has had ever since in defining modern conflict The collection reinforces the notion that although the First World War was a vast and often bewildering industrial conflict it was ultimately a very human phenomenon Bookseller's catalogues Thornton J. and son,1883 Bibliography on Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and Selected Marginal Communities of

India: A-K series.-[2]L-Z series India. Office of the Registrar General,1970 Troubling (Public) Theologies Jione Havea,2023-02-06 Theologies no matter their designations are public measures they disclose as well as gauge the publics near and far on which they stand sit lie or fall Because publics shift and mingle theologies require reimagining relocating and embracing fresh insights and energies The insights and energies embraced in this work are in three clusters spaces bodies and technologies The spotlighted spaces are in Africa Asia Black America the Caribbean and Pasifika beyond the eyes of mainline theologies the privileged bodies have survived with scars from empire and missionary positionings and the welcomed technologies include Dalit indigenous art poetry cyborg and the novel This collection is troubling in several ways first reimagining and relocating are troubling acts upon their subject matter here public theologies On that note what theology is not public Second this work takes theologies in general and not just the theologies that carry the public designation to be public theologies Third this work takes theologies in general to be inherently troubling In other words theologies that are not troubling are not public enough
