Symbols, the News Magazines and Martin Luther King Richard Lentz, 1999-03-01 More than two decades after his death Martin Luther King Jr remains America's preeminent symbol of the civil rights movement In the early years of the movement King advocated a policy of nonviolent resistance to the racism ingrained in American society In later years however King adopted a more militant stance toward racial and other forms of injustice In this innovative book Richard Lentz considers King as a cultural symbol from the Montgomery bus boycott of 1955 1956 to the Poor People s Campaign which King helped organize shortly before his assassination in 1968 In particular Lentz examines the ways the three major news weeklies Newsweek Time and U S News World Report presented King to their readers It is primarily through media institutions that Americans shape and interpret their values Newsweek Time and U S News though representing different shadings of political ideology ranging from left of center to conservative were all aimed at the same audience middle class Americans Therefore their influence on the nation s values during a period of enormous social upheaval was significant In the mid 1960s when King shifted from reform to radicalism the news magazines were thrust into what Lentz calls a crisis of Symbols because King no longer fit the symbolic mold the magazines had created for him Lentz investigates how the magazines responded to this crisis discussing the ways in which their analyses of King shifted over time and the means they employed to create a new symbolic image that made sense of King s radicalization for readers This is an important perceptive study of Martin Luther King Jr s career and an astute critical analysis of the reporting practices of the news media in the modern era Martin Luther King Godfrey Hodgson,2010-01-04

Dr Martin Luther King Jr is as relevant today as he was when he led civil rights campaigns in the 1950s and 1960s He was an agent and a prophet of political change in this country and the election of President Barack Obama is his direct legacy Now from one of Britain s most experienced political observers comes a new accessible biography of the man and his works The story of King is dramatic and Godfrey Hodgson presents it with verve clarity and acute insight based in part on his own reporting on scene at the time He interviewed King half a dozen times or more heard his speech at the March on Washington was in Birmingham Selma and Chicago and met many of the characters in King s life story Martin Luther King combines the best of his own reporting plus the work of other biographers and researchers to trace the iconic civil rights leader s career from his birth in Atlanta in 1929 through the campaigns that made possible the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to his assassination in Memphis in 1968 Hodgson sheds light on every aspect of an extraordinary life the Black Baptist culture in which King grew up his theology and political philosophy his physical and moral courage his insistence on the injustice of inequality his campaigning energy his repeated sexual infidelities Hodgson describes the political minefield in which King operated follows how he gradually persuaded President Kennedy that he could not stand by and allow the civil rights movement to be frustrated and describes how on the verge of success his career was threatened by President Johnson s anger at King s principled decision to come out against the Vietnam War He also puts King s career into the context of American history in the crisis of the 1960s In his life King was frustrated but in death he has been triumphant Martin Luther King allows the charisma and power of King s personality to shine through showing in gripping narrative style exactly how one man helped America to progress toward its truest ideals Hodgson s extensive research and detail help paint an accurate complex portrait of one of America s most important leaders Godfrey Hodgson has worked in Britain and America as a newspaper and magazine journalist as a television reporter documentary maker and anchor as a university teacher and
