Ortar, Patrick R  rat, 2023-11-16 This open access book provides insight on how the tactical urbanism has the capacity to influence change in mobility practices such as cycling COVID 19 crisis prompted the public authorities to rethink the use of public space in order to develop means of transport that are both efficient and adapted to the health context and their effects on cycling practices in Europe North and South America Its contributors collectively reveal and evidence through policies analysis mapping and innovative qualitative analysis bridging video and interviews how those new infrastructures and policies can be a trigger for change in a context of mobility transition This book provides an important element on the way local authorities can act in a quicker and more agile way While some decisions are specific to the context of the beginning of the pandemic the analysis offers lessons on the way to implement the transition toward a low carbon mobility on the importance of processes based on trials and errors on the political stakes of reallocating road space Demonology and Witchcraft Jean-Pierre Coumont, 2021-11-01 Extensive bibliography on demonology and witchcraft systematically describing all materials including books monographs conference reports and doctoral dissertations covering these subjects subjects from the 15th century to the 21st century 5000 entries and indices on author subject and anonymous works

Republicanism in Nineteenth-Century France, 1814-1871 Pamela Pilbeam, 1995-02-27 This book is a fascinating survey of nineteenth century republicanism the first of its kind this century It investigates why it was that although France was one of the first countries in modern Europe to become a republic in 1792 it was nearly a hundred years before a republic was acceptable to the majority Pamela Pilbeam suggests that republicanism was a witch s brew of Enlightenment rationality bloody memories and conflicting socialist expectations The book concludes that the successful republic of 1871 used the rhetoric of democracy to conceal persistent elitism Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112002644547 and Others , 1909 Molecular and Cellular Enzymology Jeannine Yon-Kahn, G. Herv  , 2011-07-23 Molecular and Cellular Enzymology addresses not only experienced enzymologists but also students teachers and academic and industrial researchers who are confronted with enzymological problems during their fundamental or applied research In this field there is an urgent need for training in order to meet the requirements of both research and industrial endeavours This book consists of several levels Practical aspects and elementary explanations are given for the benefit of non specialists and students understanding In order to facilitate the task of students two typographies have been adopted The main text corresponds to basic knowledge whereas text in a smaller font provides more specialised information Specialists will also find topics more deeply expounded with the principal bibliographic references cited The bibliography however is not exhaustive the choice includes general books and review articles as well as some specialised articles In this book for the first time the different molecular and cellular aspects of enzymology are presented together Until now there has been no book available in which these different aspects are treated in the same volume In addition besides the theoretical developments this book provides a wealth of practical information for experimentalists

Torture and the Twilight of Empire Marnia Lazreg,2016-12-13 Torture and the Twilight of Empire looks at the intimate relationship between torture and colonial domination through a close examination of the French army s coercive tactics during the Algerian war from 1954 to 1962 By tracing the psychological cultural and political meanings of torture at the end of the French empire Marnia Lazreg also sheds new light on the United States and its recourse to torture in Iraq and Afghanistan This book is nothing less than an anatomy of torture its methods justifications functions and consequences Drawing extensively from archives confessions by former torturers interviews with former soldiers and war diaries as well as writings by Jean Paul Sartre Albert Camus and others Lazreg argues that occupying nations justify their systematic use of torture as a regrettable but necessary means of saving Western civilization from those who challenge their rule She shows how torture was central to guerre r volutionnaire a French theory of modern warfare that called for total war against the subject population and which informed a pacification strategy founded on brutal psychological techniques borrowed from totalitarian movements Lazreg seeks to understand torture s impact on the Algerian population especially women and also on the French troops who became their torturers She explores the roles Christianity and Islam played in rationalizing these acts and the ways in which torture became not only routine but even acceptable Written by a preeminent historical sociologist Torture and the Twilight of Empire holds particularly disturbing lessons for us today as we carry out the War on Terror

Richelieu and Reason of State William Farr Church,2015-03-08 The problem of the relationship between moral principles and political necessity of the purposes of power and the justice of means has always been a central theme in European history The ministry of Cardinal Richelieu is a focal point for the problem because it existed during a time when the continuing strength of religiously based political ideas and the growth of the modern state converged In this major study William F Church examines Richelieu s policies his efforts to justify them and the extensive debates they occasioned His conclusion contrary to that of many earlier historians is that the underlying ideology of the Cardinal s policies was strongly religious and opened the way to secularized reason of state to a very limited degree Originally published in 1973 The
