Lyrical Madness An Anthology Of Contemporary Poetry By African American Poets:

Lyrical Madness Carla Cooks, 2004-04-01 Hip Hop's Inheritance Reiland Rabaka, 2011-01-01 Hip Hop's Inheritance arguably offers the first book length treatment of what hip hop culture has literally inherited from the Harlem Renaissance the Black Arts movement the Feminist Art movement and 1980s and 1990s postmodern aesthetics By comparing and contrasting the major motifs of the aforementioned cultural aesthetic traditions with those of hip hop culture all the while critically exploring the origins and evolution of black popular culture from antebellum America through to Obama's America Hip Hop's Inheritance demonstrates that the hip hop generation is not the first generation of young black and white folk preoccupied with spirituality and sexuality race and religion entertainment and athletics or ghetto culture and bourgeois culture Taking interdisciplinarity and intersectionality seriously Hip Hop's Inheritance employs the epistemologies and methodologies from a wide range of academic and organic intellectual activist communities in its efforts to advance an intellectual history and critical theory of hip hop culture Drawing from academic and organic intellectual activist communities as diverse as African American studies and women's studies postcolonial studies and sexuality studies history and philosophy politics and economics and sociology and ethnomusicology Hip Hop's Inheritance calls into question one dimensional and monodisciplinary interpretations or rather misinterpretations of a multidimensional and multivalent form of popular culture that has increasingly come to include cultural criticism social commentary and political analysis The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry Craig Svonkin, Steven Gould Axelrod, 2023-01-12 With chapters written by leading scholars such as Steven Gould Axelrod Cary Nelson and Marjorie Perloff this comprehensive Handbook explores the full range and diversity of poetry and criticism in 21st century America The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry covers such topics as Major histories and genealogies of post war poetry from the language poets and the Black Arts Movement to New York school and the Beats Poetry identity and community from African American Chicana o and Native American poetry to Queer verse and the poetics of disability Key genres and forms including digital visual documentary and children's poetry Central critical themes economics publishing popular culture ecopoetics translation and biography The book also includes an interview section in which major contemporary poets such as Rae Armantrout and Claudia Rankine reflect on the craft and value of poetry today The Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 1997 This the first comprehensive one volume reference work devoted to African American literature contains much information on little known writers unavailable elsewhere The book covers all types of genre and examines unique aspects of Afro Americanism Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974 Expanding Authorship Peter Middleton, 2021-06 Expanding Authorship collects important essays by Peter Middleton that show the many ways in which in a world of proliferating communications media poetry making is increasingly the work of agencies extending beyond that of a single identifiable author In four sections Sound Communities Collaboration and Complexity Middleton demonstrates that this changing situation of poetry requires new understandings of the variations of authorship He explores the internal divisions of lyric subjectivity the vicissitudes of coauthorship and poetry networks the creative role of editors and anthologists and the ways in which the long poem can reveal the outer limits of authorship Readers and scholars of Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams George Oppen Frank O Hara Robert Duncan Robert Creeley Jerome Rothenberg Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian Nathaniel Mackey and Rae Armantrout will find much to learn and enjoy in this groundbreaking volume Poets & Writers, 2003 African American Writers: June Jordan to Richard Wright Valerie Smith, 2001 Contains biographical and critical essays on the work of important African American writers The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern World Peter N. Stearns, 2008 The Encyclopedia of the Modern World delves into the period from 1750 to the present providing special attention to social economic cultural and political topics applicable to the time The breadth of knowledge offered within this multivolume set is astounding with features spanning articles on countries regions and ethnic groups themes involving social history demography family life politics economics religion thought education science and technology and culture events such as major wars and extensive coverage of the United States Detailed articles cover not only the major facts but the interpretations as well and are written for readers who are not specialists in the particular area Enriched with over 800 halftones and 50 maps this reference work is essential for any scholar general reader collector or curator interested in this rich and varied time in history Through its fluent global coverage The Encyclopedia of Modern World provides information about and interpretation of major developments across particular regions both salient events and regional perspectives on common themes such as politics demography social class and gender Readers can explore topics that have global implications such as migration childhood and foods topics that can be viewed through a combination of global patterns and key comparisons Entries also shed light on standard geographic and ethnic units such as Scandinavia Korea or the Gypsies in the modern period The Encyclopedia presents unprecedented coverage of global processes and institutions themselves including the International Red Cross and the League of Nations Publisher The Beat Generation: Authors I-Z Lynn Marie Zott, 2003 Twentieth Century American Literature Warren French, 1980-11-01 Who's who Among North American Authors Alberta Lawrence, 1927 Covering the United States and Canada with their possessions and neighbors and containing the biographical and literary data of living authors whose birth or activities connect them with the continent of North America with a press section devoted to journalists and magazine writers varies slightly The Broadview Anthology of British Literature, Volume 5: The Victorian Era - Third Edition Joseph Black et al., 2021-06-01 Shaped by sound literary and historical scholarship The Broadview Anthology of British Literature takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a broad selection of work by lesser known writers The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to matters such as race gender
