Listening to Stone Hayden Herrera, 2015-04-21 Throughout the twentieth century Isamu Noguchi was a vital figure in modern art From interlocking wooden sculptures to massive steel monuments to the elegant Akari lamps Noguchi became a master of what he called the sculpturing of space But his constant struggle as both an artist and a man was to embrace his conflicted identity as the son of a single American woman and a famous yet reclusive Japanese father It's only in art he insisted that it was ever possible for me to find any identity at all In this remarkable biography of the elusive artist Hayden Herrera observes this driving force of Noguchi's creativity as intimately tied to his deep appreciation of nature As a boy in Japan Noguchi would collect wild azaleas and blue mountain flowers for a little garden in front of his home As Herrera writes he also included a rock to give a feeling of weight and permanence It was a sensual appreciation he never abandoned When looking for stones in remote Japanese quarries for his zen like Paris garden forty years later he would spend hours actually listening to the stones scrambling from one to another until he found one that spoke to him Constantly striving to take the essence of nature and distill it Noguchi moved from sculpture to furniture and from playgrounds to sets for his friend the choreographer Martha Graham and back again working in wood iron clay steel aluminum and of course stone Throughout his career Noguchi traveled constantly from New York to Paris to India to Japan forever uprooting himself to reinvigorate what he called the keen edge of originality. Wherever he went his needy disposition and boyish charm drew women to him yet he tended to push them away when things began to feel too settled. Only through his art now seen as a powerful aesthetic link between the East and the West did Noguchi ever seem to feel that he belonged. Combining the personal correspondence of and interviews with Noguchi and those closest to him from artists patrons assistants and lovers Herrera has created an authoritative biography of one of the twentieth century's most important sculptors. She locates Noguchi in his friendships with such artists as Buckminster Fuller and Arshile Gorky and in his affairs with women including Frida Kahlo and Anna Matta Clark. With the attention to detail and scholarship that made her biography of Gorky a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize Herrera has written a rich meditation on art in a globalized milieu. Listening to Stone is a moving portrait of an artist compulsively driven to reinvent himself as he searched for his own essence of sculpture. Transcript of the Enrollment Books New York (N.Y.). The Curse of Beauty James Bone, 2016-04-12 The tumultuous and heartbreaking life of a world famous model whose riveting story of beauty fame passion murder and madness in the Gilded Age captivated a nation. As America was stepping into the modern era one great beauty became the artist's model of choice. Her perfect form became the emblem of the Gilded Age and appears on the greatest monuments of New York and the nation. Supermodel actress icon her beauty paved the way for a life of glamour passion and ultimately tragedy. She dated the millionaires of the fashionable Newport colony became the first American movie star ever to appear naked in a film but her promising film career collapsed her doctor fell in love with her and killed his own wife and on her fortieth birthday her mother committed her to an insane asylum. She remained there until her death in 1996 at the age of 104 and is now buried in an unmarked grave. Her name is Audrey Munson. Many readers will recognize Audrey Munson and have walked by her in the street without even knowing her name. She stands atop New York's Municipal Building. She sits as Miss Manhattan and Miss Brooklyn outside the Brooklyn Museum is immortalized on the Manhattan Bridge the Frick Mansion the New York Public Library and the Pulitzer Fountain outside the Plaza Hotel. In gold bronze and stone she still graces bridges skyscrapers fountains churches monuments and public buildings across the nation from Jacksonville to San Francisco from Atlanta to the Wisconsin state capitol. From James Bone the former New York Bureau Chief of The Times of London this brilliantly reported investigative biography reveals for the first time the riveting truth of the forgotten life of an iconic beauty.

The FEDER Guide to Where to Park Your Car in Manhattan (and where Not to Park It!) Erik Feder, 2005 The Feder Guide to Where to Park Your Car in Manhattan and Where Not to Park It has been designed to make it easier for readers to park their vehicles in Manhattan NY. This first edition covers Downtown Manhattan 30th Street down to Battery Park. A Midtown Uptown edition will follow in the next six months. The book has 3 main parts to it: a helpful hints section listings of the street parking regulations and listings of parking garages lots. The book will also have maps of the sections of Manhattan that are covered.

The helpful hints section is pretty much what it sounds like what to do if you get a ticket if you're towed what to watch out for etc The listings of the street parking regulations does just that lists the complete street parking regulations for every street in the book When a particular street is generally a great place to park a smiley face has been placed next to the listing to indicate to readers that they are usually safe to park there If a particular street is a terrible place to park a frowney face has been placed there to alert the readers to avoid that street The parking garage section will list the locations hours contact info rates etc for participating garages in Manhattan All the big firms who run parking facilities in Manhattan have agreed to participate and some of the smaller firms are also participating We've done our research on this topic For instance in the year in 2000 an average of 22 000 parking tickets a day were written in NYC of which Manhattan was by far the largest contributor As noted on the back cover of the book if by using our guide a reader saves themselves from getting just one parking ticket our book will pay for itself up to 7 times over It pays for itself 14 times over if they save themselves from being towed We have a marketing plan in place with a focus on prepublication promotion extensive ARC distribution for obtaining reviews online promotion publicity to include TV and radio satellite interviews scheduling speaking engagements and targeting places that car enthusiasts shop including auto parts stores AAA rental car outlets as well as trucking and moving companies

The Edison Monthly, 1913 I Learn from Children Caroline Pratt, 2014-06-16 The memoir of an innovative American educator and the remarkable school she built a lucid presentation of what progressive education can accomplish The New York Times Over a century ago American educator Caroline Pratt created an innovative school that fosters creativity and independent thought by asking the provocative question Was it unreasonable to try to fit the school to the child rather than the child to the school A strong-willed small town schoolteacher who ran a one-room schoolhouse by the time she was seventeen Pratt came to viscerally reject the teaching methods of her day which often featured a long-winded teacher at the front of the room and rows of miserable children sitting on benches nailed to the floor In this persuasive presentation of progressive education Pratt recounts how she founded what is now the dynamic City and Country School in New York City invented the unit blocks that have become a staple in classrooms around the globe and played an important role in reimagining preschool and primary school education in ways that are essential for the tumultuously creative time we live in today Kirkus Reviews

 Village Voice LITTLE GLORIA Barbara Goldsmith,2011-08-24 This is a story of money glamour and scandal on the highest level a story of American society and of European royalty a story of family strife exploding into one of the most dramatic and publicized court battles of the century the battle for a solemn ten year old child little Gloria Vanderbilt who in 1934 was the object of the epic custody suit between her mother the beautiful and penniless Vanderbilt widow and her aunt the famous Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney whose 78 million could buy her anything she wanted And what she wanted was little Gloria The leading characters Gloria Morgan who was one of the fabled Morgan Twins invented by society reporter Cholly Knickerbocker as the quintessential Caf Society beauties and who as a shy stammering eighteen year old living on nothing a year did what she was raised to do becoming the wife of Reggie Vanderbilt at forty three a worn out alcoholic who had managed to go through almost 25 million in fourteen years and who died only two years after his marriage to Gloria leaving his beautiful young widow nothing but their baby their baby s untouchable trust fund and the Vanderbilt name Gloria Morgan s twin Thelma who as Lady Furness was for years the mistress of the Prince of Wales until she introduced him to her best friend Wallis Simpson Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney Reginald s sister a formidable Society woman a sculptor and the founder of the Whitney Museum of American Art a woman who conformed on the surface to everything expected of American royalty and yet lived a hidden second life as a passionate bohemian And the child little Gloria herself shunted out of her mother s life carted around Europe depending for her existence on her neurotically overprotective nurse Dodo who never left her for a single day and her mad Morgan grandmother who insisted that her own daughter might murder the child for the Vanderbilt millions Deserted dressed in rags neglected she became an almost mythic incarnation of the poor little rich girl This child who was to grow up to become a world famous fashion designer her name Gloria Vanderbilt a household word We come to understand and care about this child as we observe close up the astonishing lives and intrigues surrounding her We see her at the age of ten brought to the courthouse rushed through mobs of spectators reporters photographers We follow a courtroom drama of sensation after sensation the judge ultimately banning both public and press the final scandalous testimony reaching to the heart of the English royal family We listen to the parade of witnesses servants millionaires society celebrities aristocrats family retainers We watch the judge himself a classic Tammany pol becoming another of the many victims of the case reviled on all sides And finally we see little Gloria pushed to choose between her mother and her aunt making the decision that will affect her whole life with nobody ever asking her the basic question Why are you afraid For the first time the thousands of pages of documents and sealed court testimony have been unearthed and explored Hundreds of people have been interviewed And a writer completely knowing about society and the period has used all this material to create a compelling narrative of vitality resonance and fascination Combining her extraordinary abilities as an investigative reporter with the skills and sensitivity of a novelist Barbara Goldsmith has given us a galvanizing story a whole world of astonishing emotional and social circumstances unforgettably revealed American Architect and the Architectural Review, 1928 The Sculpture of James Earle Fraser A. L. Freundlich, 2001-02 Fraser is best known for his End of the Trail and Buffalo Nickel He also is the most prolific sculptor of Federalist Washington DC He is represented by the portal figures at the Supreme Court and others such as facades and pediments at Commerce National Archives and Agriculture The Memorial Bridge sculptures of Hamilton and Gallatin at Treasury and major public works in New York Chicago and Jefferson City In the first 5 decades of the 21st Century Fraser was a leading artistic force He served on the National Commission of Fine Arts and was President of the National Sculpture Society He was closely allied with many of the American painters and sculptors including St Haudens and French who were his early sponsors He was involved with the Armory Show and The Eight a close friend of Bellows and E A Robinson among many He was popular in New York society counting among his students Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney Included in this book is Fraser s first Catalogue Raisonnee New York Walter Prichard Eaton, 1915
