A Portrait of Europe ,1972 Motherland and Progress József Sisa,2016-11-21 In the 19th century Hungary witnessed unprecedented social economic and cultural development The country became an equal partner within the Dual Monarchy when the Austro Hungarian Compromise of 1867 was concluded Architecture and all forms of design flourished as never before A distinctly Central European taste emerged in which the artistic presence of the German speaking lands was augmented by the influence of France and England As this process unfolded attempts were made to find a uniquely Hungarian form based on motifs borrowed from peasant art as well as real or fictitious historical antecedents Motherland and Progress the motto of 19th century Hungarian reformers reflected the programme embraced by the country in its drive to define its identity and shape its future

The Mood of Information Andrew McStay,2011-04-14 The Mood of Information explores advertising from the perspective of information flows rather than the more familiar approach of symbolic representation At the heart of this book is an aspiration to better understand contemporary and nascent forms of commercial solicitation predicated on the commodification of experience and subjectivity In assessing novel forms of advertising that involve tracking users web browsing activity over a period of time this book seeks to grasp and explicate key trends within the media and advertising industries along with the technocultural legal regulatory and political environment online behavioural advertising operates within Situated within contemporary scholarly debate and interest in recursive media that involves intensification of discourses of feedback personalization recommendation co production constructivism and the preempting of intent this book represents a departure from textual criticism of advertising to one based on exposition of networked means of inferring preferences desires and orientations that reflect ways of being or moods of information A

Rusi,1991-05-31 This book provides new and exceptional interpretations in regard to the post World War 2 history of the East West conflict and calls for interdisciplinary approaches in analyzing international relations The systematic and political processes are undoing the division of Europe and restoring an organically interdependent continent The events of 1989 in Eastern Europe are but a harbinger of a new security order in Europe and for the first time since the Treaty of Westphalia of 1648 Europe tries to look beyond state centered concepts of security A Portrait of Europe 1789-1914 Martin Roberts,1972 Machines and Liberty Martin Roberts,1980 A Social History of France 1780-1914 Peter McPhee,2017-03-03 This volume provides a lively and authoritative synthesis of recent work on the social history of France and is now thoroughly updated to cover the long nineteenth century from 1789 1914 Peter McPhee offers both a readable narrative and a distinctive coherent argument about this remarkable century and explores key themes such as Peasant interaction with the environment The changing experience of work and leisure The nature of crime and protest Changing demographic patterns and family structures The religious practices of workers and peasants The ideology and internal repercussions of colonisation At the core of this social history is the exercise and experience of social relations of power not only because in these years there were four periods of protracted upheaval but also because the history of the workplace of relations between women and men adults and children is all about human interaction Stimulating and enjoyable to read this indispensable introduction to nineteenth century France will help readers to make sense of the often bewildering story of these years while giving them a better understanding of what it meant to be an inhabitant of France during that turbulent time The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 *A Portrait of Europe: Lindsay, D. and Price, M.
