Department of the Army Pamphlet, Correspondence Courses Offered by Colleges and Universities Through the United States Armed Forces Institute United States Armed Forces Institute, 1962 A Guide to English Literature F. W. Bateson, At first glance A Guide to English Literature may seem to be no more than a short bibliography of English literature with perhaps rather more extensive and certainly more outspoken comments on the principal editions commentaries biographies and critical works than bibliographies usually provide But it is something more this guide contains long inter chapters that provide reinterpretations of the principal periods of English literature in the light of modern research as well as two final sections summarizing in unusual detail the literary criticism that exists in English and recent scholarship in the field The purpose of this book then is to provide the reader with convenient access to a disciplined study of the texts themselves This guide proposes itself as a new kind of literary history The conventional history of literature has often tended to become a substitute for the reading of the literature it describes the better the history the greater the temptation to substitute it The present combination of reading lists and inter chapters cannot be a substitute for anything else Meaningless as literature in themselves they nevertheless provide the necessary preliminary information to meaningful reading Since oddities of arrangement derive from these assumptions the authors are not arranged alphabetically Instead there are chronological compartments with the divisions circa 1500 1650 and 1800 in which authors succeed each other in the order of their births This pioneering handbook is primarily a bibliographical laborsaving device It is meant mostly for students and the general reader in that it stops where original research by the reader is expected to begin However the last chapter on literary scholarship is devoted specifically to the research specialist and provides indispensable equipment for the reader There is also a general section on literary criticism which will be of use to all F W Bateson 1901 1978 was University Lecturer in English Literature at Oxford and a Fellow and Tutor of Corpus Christi College Founder and editor of the periodical Essays in Criticism he is also editor of the four volume Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature and the author of a number of critical studies of English poetry and drama University of Michigan Official Publication, 1968 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Appropriations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations, 1964 I. A. Richards (Routledge Revivals) John Paul Russo, 2015-06-11 A pioneering critic educator and poet I A Richards 1893 1979 helped the English speaking world decide not only what to read but how to read it Acknowledged father of New Criticism he produced the most systematic body of critical writing in the English language since Coleridge His method of close reading dominated the English speaking classroom for half a century John Paul Russo draws on close personal acquaintance with Richards as well as on unpublished materials correspondence and interviews to write the first biography originally published in 1989 of one of last century's most influential and many sided men of letters Tennyson and the Text Gerhard Joseph, 1992-04-09 This 1992 study of Tennyson evolves its themes from the weaving figure of The Lady of Shalott which becomes a kind of parable for the author and his texts Taking its derivation from the Latin texere to weave Professor Joseph s focus on poetic texture and a sense of textuality leads to a consciousness of his own critical and interpretative weaving while revealing a pattern in the fabric of Tennyson s work This procedure brings together a theory of perception developed in the first part of this study with an analysis of the gendering of Tennyson s characters in the second part and engages with the methodologies of deconstruction psychoanalysis and gender theory The weaving metaphor also opens up a key theoretical issue regarding Tennyson s poetics is the textual shuttle managed by the controlling hand of a historically definable author or is the poetic weaver cursed like the Lady of Shalott to suffer a mystifying doom at the unseen hand of an all pervasive textuality that occludes authorial intention College of Engineering University of Michigan.
