Reconciling All Things Emmanuel Katongole, Chris Rice, 2009-12-09 Conflict resolution and peacemaking are not enough What makes real reconciliation possible Emmanuel Katongole and Chris Rice work from their experiences in Uganda and Mississippi to recover distinctively Christian practices that will help the church be both a sign and an agent of God's reconciling love in the fragmented world of the twenty first century Things That Make for Peace Peter B. Price, 2020-04-28 Drawing on the experiences and lessons of over forty years working on the frontline of reconciliation and peace building in Northern Ireland Latin America Africa and the Middle East Peter B Price explores what it means to respond to the biblical call to seek peace and pursue it Psalm 34 14 What is required of Christians today in the light of the increasing number of wars insurgencies holocausts and genocide is a deeper understanding of what true peacemaking costs and an answer to the question Can Christianity continue to sanction war American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Glocal Rick Love, 2017-07-14 Three far reaching global trends terrorism pluralism and globalization have irrevocably altered how we live think and communicate in the twenty first century We now live in a glocal world what happens globally impacts us locally and what happens locally impacts things globally These changes have profound implications for followers of Jesus Rick Love offers biblical wisdom and practical insights on how to navigate the complexities of communication in this interconnected world He also invites you to an inward journey that helps you better discern how the things of the heart relate to the work of the ministry Glocal Following Jesus in the 21st Century is a call to be a faithful follower of and a winsome witness for Jesus Love will help you better embody and communicate a core message worth dying for an integrated identity worthy living for and a global dream worth suffering for For the Healing of the Nation William Russell Pregeant, 2016-04-14 For the Healing of the Nation offers a serious look at the social and political climate in the United States from a biblical perspective emphasizing race and otherness economics and the environment and institutional violence war and capital punishment An autobiographical thread traces the journey of a white male coming of age in the mid twentieth century Deep South as his evolving faith leads him to painful breaks with inherited values and standard views on controversial issues Critical not only of both major political parties but also of centrist compromises between Right and Left Russell Pregeant seeks a forward position which he terms ecocommunitarian based on biblical values His musings touch on both southern and American identities and on the nature of the biblical writings and the ways they should and should not be used in contemporary debates Central to the entire work are discussions of how idolatrous commitments to a culture's prevalent ideologies obscure the essential demands of biblical faith

Whole and Reconciled Al Tizon, 2018-10-16 The ministry of reconciliation is the new whole in holistic ministry It must be if the Christian mission is to remain relevant in our increasingly fractured world This book offers a fresh treatment of holistic ministry that takes the role of reconciliation seriously rethinking the meaning of the gospel the nature of the church and the practice of mission in light of globalization post Christendom and postcolonialism It also includes theological and practical resources for effectively engaging in evangelism compassion and justice and reconciliation ministries Includes a foreword by Ruth Padilla DeBorst and an afterword by Ronald J Sider

Bitter Waters Made Sweet: The Miracle at Marah Ahmed Musa, 2024-12-11 Journey with the Israelites into the wilderness in Bitter Waters Made Sweet The Miracle at Marah a story of faith perseverance and divine provision After days of wandering without water the people finally find a spring only to discover its waters are bitter and undrinkable Through vivid storytelling this book recounts the moment Moses cries out to God who instructs him to throw a piece of wood into the water transforming it into life giving sweetness This miraculous event not only quenched their physical thirst but also reminded them of God's faithfulness in times of testing Perfect for readers seeking encouragement this timeless tale illustrates God's ability to bring sweetness from bitterness hope from despair and provision in the face of need A beautiful reminder that God can transform even the most challenging situations into blessings

(un)Common Sounds Roberta R. King, Sooi Ling Tan, 2014-11-18 In troubled times of heightened global tensions and conflict un Common Sounds Songs of Peace and Reconciliation among Muslims and Christians explores the contribution of music and the performing arts to peacebuilding and interfaith dialogue in interreligious settings It asks the simple but endlessly complex question How is music and song used in our faiths and daily lives to foster peace and reconciliation Focusing on the two largest world religions that together comprise more than 55% of the world's population the essays address the complexities of embodied lived religious traditions by moving across and linking a range of disciplines ethnomusicology the intersection of music and culture peacemaking Islamic studies and Christian theology Based on research in the Middle East North Africa and Indonesia context specific case studies serve to identify and reflect on the significant roles of music and the performing arts in fostering sustainable peace un Common Sounds investigates the dynamics of peacebuilding and interfaith dialogue as they relate to music's transformative roles in conflict and post conflict settings Classroom tested un Common Sounds also provides discussion questions and projects for each chapter a companion Web site www.songsforpeaceproject.org and an available documentary film to enhance learning in the academy nongovernmental organizations and religious groups

Voice of Eternity Salomon Lane, Luiz Santos, 2025-01-03 Voice of Eternity The Apocalypse of the Apostle Peter For centuries the Apocalypse attributed to John has been accepted as the definitive vision of the end times However a hidden revelation written by one of Christ's twelve apostles offers a unique testimony the Apocalypse of Peter Discovered in 1886 in Egypt this extraordinary manuscript carries undeniable authority coming from someone who walked alongside Jesus heard His deepest teachings and witnessed His miraculous works This invaluable text transcends historical records Written by the apostle who was the cornerstone of the Church it presents a vivid and direct account of humanity's destiny It is not filled with distant allegories or metaphors but offers an intense and detailed vision where heaven and hell are unveiled with the clarity of one who witnessed such realities Divine judgment is portrayed as inevitable and just yet abundant with mercy for those who choose the light The discovery of this gospel challenged theological interpretations and reignited profound discussions among scholars and believers Peter's text provides an unprecedented portrayal of the Final Judgment describing the eternal triumph of the righteous and the irreparable torment of the wicked His words echo with the urgency of a call to reflection and choice leading the reader to an unavoidable confrontation with divine truth Unlike John's text Peter delivers a profoundly human narrative filled with emotions and unshakable convictions He recounts not only the unfolding of the final events but also the spiritual impact of a world where the heavens open angels descend to execute the divine plan and Christ reigns as judge and savior It is a message of hope and warning an appeal for humanity to recognize the magnitude of what is to come and prepare to face its eternal destiny

Visiting the Elderly Jeanette M. Jabour, 2007 In this lovely and inviting book Sr Jeanette shares her experiences of visiting the elderly Her advice is warm and welcoming and she is an experienced guide It is her fond hope that those who read it will embrace the ministry of visiting the elderly and sometimes forgotten members of the parish to share stories to pray together and to grow spiritually together She believes that this ministry is lifegiving affirming for the elders and an essential aspect of parish life

Reinventing Theology in Post-Genocide Rwanda Marcel Uwineza, Elisée Rutagambwa, Michel Segatagara Kamanzi, 2023 In the year 2019 Rwanda marked twenty five years after the genocide against the Tutsi Sadly Catholic priests and nuns were complicit or even participated in the killing of an estimated 800 000 ethnic Tutsis Thousands of people were slaughtered in Catholic Churches where they took refuge For example 5000 people are estimated to have been killed at the Ntarama Catholic Church in August 1994 In March of 2017 Pope Francis issued an apology remarking that the sins and failings of the Church and its members had disfigured the face of Catholicism This statement recognized that the Catholic Church's role in the genocide has implicated the entire Church and is an invitation to reimagine the very essence of the meaning of the Church theology in its multiple dimensions the missionary enterprise the mission of the Church and the place of human dignity in the Catholic faith The task of rethinking what it means to be the Church and restoring fraternal identity as Christians in post genocide Rwanda is thus crucial if theology is to make sense again This is particularly imperative in as much as theology is compelled to reflect upon the very evils that have disfigured the Church's image and people's identity namely the evils of sin suffering the indifference of bystanders the increasing number of genocide deniers the complexity of memory the lack of credible and prophetic leadership that invites a new way of thinking about theology This book brings together bishops theologians historians and other scholars to reflect on how the Rwandan Catholic Church can restore fundamental peace and rebuild lasting reconciliation

Disarming the Church Eric A. Seibert, 2018-04-11 If Christians follow the Prince of Peace why do they often behave so violently What can be done to transform the church so that it looks more like Jesus Eric Seibert explores these questions in this important and timely study He builds a biblical and practical case for living nonviolently in all areas of life and urges Christians to reexamine their most fundamental attitudes toward violence warfare and killing Through true stories and careful analysis Seibert demonstrates that it is possible to resolve conflict correct injustice and stop oppression without resorting to violence Many nonviolent alternatives are discussed throughout the book alternatives that can be used in a wide range of situations from dealing with an unwanted intruder at home to removing a dictator from power In a world filled with so much violence hate and fear alternatives like these are desperately needed This book offers hope that a better way is possible one that has the potential to transform the church and change the world So read on and join in

Reading the Bible After Christendom

Lloyd Pietersen, 2011-04-01. Pietersen argues that for too long the Old Testament has been the primary source for Christian ethics and the letters of Paul for Christian discipleship. Without disparaging these sources, the author suggests that the church in a postmodern post-Christian society needs to look at Scripture with a different focus. This book seeks to examine what reading the Bible might look like in the current period when the church is no longer central and the Christian story is not well known. This is a provocative and refreshing exploration of the possibilities inherent in reading Scripture from the margins rather than from within the compromised and rapidly receding structures of Christendom. A worthy addition to the challenging After Christendom series. Lloyd Pietersen's thoughtful work moves the discussion forward in ways that are at times controversial, at other times stretching, but at all times constructive. Highly recommended. Brian Harris, Principal, Vose Seminary, Perth, Australia.
