Make Learn Bible Toys Ages 23:

Material masculinities Ben Jackson, 2025-04-08 Material Masculinities examines the material and consumer practices of over 1000 men from the middling and upper ranks of eighteenth century society c 1650 1850 It draws upon evidence from over 35 archives and museum collections to detail how material objects were integral for men in forming identities and shaping experiences For men of all social ranks ages and geographic locations material knowledge was imperative for masculine social identities to operate in a commercial society Before the centralised factory and widespread mass produced goods men personalised and repaired their goods products were shaped by men s attitudes and concerns Objects were tools in men s identity formation and the exercise of social and gendered power There was a reciprocal relationship between men and goods in this period men were active agents of material and commercial change driving product and aesthetic innovation

Toys in the Age of Wonder Mark Rich, 2020-09-23 By the middle 1800s toys were appearing in forms that drew upon and that inspired advances in areas such as optics biology geography transportation and automation In these decades too a new type of wonder tale was being brought to maturity by a Poe inspired Jules Verne The modern wonder tale s highly charged vision expressed the hopes and the fears and the delights and the traumas engendered by new worlds idealism that Western pursuit of both mechanical and geographical conquest Exploring realms belonging to childhood literature science and history this innovative study weaves together the histories of wonder tales and children s toys focusing specifically on their modern aspects and how they reflect and express the social attitudes of that time period beginning around 1859 and ending around 1957 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1972 The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a
