The Monster Edgar Saltus, 2015-03-25 Example in this ebook Chapter I When the clergyman had gone the bride turned Before her was an open window before which was the open sea In the air was a tropical languor a savour of brine the scent of lilies the sound of mandolins that are far away Below in the garden were masses of scarlet high heaps of geranium blooms A bit beyond was the Caprian blue of the San Diego Bay There a yacht rode white and spacious The yacht belonged to her husband who was beside her She turned again and as passionately he embraced her she coloured For the moment as they stood there they seemed so sheerly dissimilar that they might have come of alien races from different zones He with his fair hair his fair skin his resolute and aggressive face was typically Anglo Saxon She with her delicate features her dense black hair and disquieting eyes looked like a Madrilene Madonna one of those fascinating and slightly shocking creations of seventeenth century art that more nearly resemble infantas serenaded by caballeros than queens of the sky There was a deeper contrast He appeared frankly material she all soul Leisurely she freed herself One might know she began then paused A smile completed the sentence He smiled too Yes Leilah one might know that however I hold you to me I never can hold you enough And I I could be held by you forever On the door came a tap rapid and assured A page entered the preoccupation of the tip in his face in his hand a platter of letters The man taking the letters dismissed him Miss Ogston he continued From your father confound him It is the last time he will address you in that fashion Miss Ogston he repeated From the Silverstairs I fancy Gulian Verplank There is but one for me He looked at his watch The launch from the yacht will be here shortly When do we start Whenever you like The Marquesas will keep Bora Bora will be the same

whenever we get there Only Only what I am in love with you not with hotels Let us go then There will be a moon to night A new one a honeymoon a honeymoon begun Gulian As if it could end In pronouncing the u in his name her mouth made the sketch of a kiss You would not wish it to he asked When I die perhaps and even then only to be continued hereafter Heaven would not be heaven without you She spoke slowly with little pauses in a manner that differed from his own mode of speech which was quick and forceful Verplank turned to the letter that had been addressed to him and which he still held Without opening it he tore it into long thin strips It was he knew from the imprint a communication of no importance but at the moment the action seemed a reply to her remark It served to indicate his complete indifference to everything and everyone save her only Afterward with a regret that was to be eternal she wished he had done the same with hers Yet pleased at the time she smiled Gulian you do love me but I wonder do you love me as absolutely as I love you Verplank with a gesture that was familiar to him closed and opened a hand I do not know But while I think you cannot love me more wholly than I love you I do know that to me you are the unique Leilah moved to where he stood Gulian and you to me You are the only one She moved closer Raising her hands she put them on his shoulders Tell me shall you be long away An hour or two Apropos would you care to leave before dinner Yes We will dine on board then Is there anything in particular you would like Yes lilies plenty of lilies and pineapples and the sound of your voice Lifting her hands from his shoulders to his face she drew it to her own Their lips met longly With the savour of her about him Verplank passed out To be continue in this ebook Dragonfly
