1914 I Don't Cry, But I Remember Joyce Lackie, 2012-04-01 When Viviana Salguero came to the United States in 1946 she spoke very little English had never learned to read or write and had no job skills besides housework or field labor She worked eighteen hour days and lived outdoors as often as not And yet she raised twelve children shielding them from her abusive husband when she dared and shared in both the tragedies and accomplishments of her family Through it all Viviana never lost her love for Mexico or her gratitude to the United States for what would eventually become a better life Though her story is unique Viviana Salguero could be the mother grandmother or great grandmother of immigrants anywhere struggling with barriers of gender education language and poverty In I Don't Cry But I Remember Joyce Lackie shares with us an intimate portrait of Viviana's life Based on hours of recorded conversations Lackie skillfully translates the interviews into an engaging revealing narrative that details the migrant experience from a woman's point of view and fills a gap in our history by examining the role of women of color in the American Southwest The book presents Viviana's life not only as a chronicle of endurance but as a tale of everyday resistance What she lacks in social confidence political strength and economic stability she makes up for in dignity faith and wisdom Like all good oral history Salguero's accounts and Lackie's analyses contribute to our understanding of the past by exposing the inconsistencies and contradictions in our remembrances This book will appeal to ethnographers oral historians students and scholars of Chicana studies and women's studies as well as general readers interested in the lives of immigrant women Zion's Home Monthly, 1894 The Holy Bible, Containing the Old and New Testaments, 1857 Proper Lessons to be read at Morning and Evening Prayer on the Sundays and other Holy-days throughout the year Church of England, 1832 Tears of Love James Preston Hardison, 2010-03 Tears Of Love profoundly portrays the love respect devotion and loyalty that two sisters have for each other even though each of them are in love with the same man Josh Lambert is a very handsome man that is devoted to his employer which happens to be the father of these sisters To Josh it was love at first sight when he saw one of the sisters at a Christmas party In order to meet the woman that had captured his heart he would have to face her bully boyfriend An action packed love story filled with suspense action drama and mystery This fictional novel will soften your heart and grip your emotions as it takes the reader on a journey of shattered dreams and broken hearts Tears Of Love is a fantastic book to read as it reflects the unyielding love between a man and a woman This novel will surely make you laugh cry and perhaps reflect back on some of your own life experiences The setting is in rural America 2009 The Indiana Weekly, 1901 The Holy Bible Containing the Old and New Testaments, Together with the Apocrypha, 1839 Poems That Make My Mother Cry with Joy Cynthia Ann Boesen Parker, 2012-01-03 About the author Meet me Cynthia Ann Boesen Parker I was born October 9 1964 I am from Glen Ellyn Illinois and live in Sarasota Florida The early years of my life have influenced my entire remainder of my life I went through neurosurgery nine times when I was five years old The next forty years have been spent making up for time lost to compensating for my weaknesses Earning an Associates degree from College of DuPage was just the beginning for me Moving to Sarasota Florida was the best thing Ive ever done In 1990 I met the man destined to become my husband We married on January 19 1991 On January 19 2011 we celebrated our twentieth wedding anniversary There have been many changes in our lives lost loved ones furthering of education changes in residence but life is stable for now As a fluke I began writing poetry I was told that Im good at it I enrolled in an Adult and Community Education Creative writing course that one course has changed my life forever One of the lines from one of my first poems expresses exactly how I feel namely I want to write write write till my words touch the sky This is me Cynthia Ann Boesen Parker Ive gone through serious illness and life tragedies to get here to the writing that has given me a wonderful new life Look out world here comes Cynthia Ann Boesen Parker
