Make Me A Zoo:

American Zoo David Grazian, 2017-12-05 A close up look at the contradictions and wonders of the modern zoo Orangutans swing from Kevlar lined fire hoses Giraffes feast on celebratory birthday cakes topped with carrots instead of candles Hi tech dinosaur robots growl among steel trees while owls watch animated cartoons on old television sets In American Zoo sociologist David Grazian takes us on a safari through the contemporary zoo alive with its many contradictions and strange wonders Trading in his tweed jacket for a zoo uniform and a pair of muddy work boots Grazian introduces us to zookeepers and animal rights activists parents and toddlers and the other human primates that make up the zoo's social world He shows that in a major shift away from their unfortunate pasts American zoos today emphasize naturalistic exhibits teeming with lush and immersive landscapes breeding programs for endangered animals and enrichment activities for their captive creatures In doing so zoos blur the imaginary boundaries we regularly use to separate culture from nature humans from animals and civilization from the wild At the same time zoos manage a wilderness of competing priorities animal care education scientific research and recreation all while attempting to serve as centers for conservation in the wake of the current environmental and climate change crisis The world of the zoo reflects how we project our own prejudices and desires onto the animal kingdom and invest nature with meaning and sentiment A revealing portrayal of comic animals delighted children and feisty zookeepers American Zoo is a remarkable close up exploration of a classic cultural attraction

Ecopedagogies Ellen Bayer, Judson Byrd Finley, 2022-09-14 Ecopedagogies showcases a range of creative approaches that educators across multiple disciplines use to empower students to access and engage with nature an increasingly important consideration in a post COVID world in environmental crisis The volume includes chapters written by scholars from the environmental arts and humanities literature writing studies rhetoric music religious studies environmental studies and sustainability sociology and anthropology physical education and outdoor education Each author walks the reader through the details of how their ecopedagogy works identifies potential challenges while also detailing how to address them and explains the rewards to students instructors and more than human nature that they have witnessed through the use of these approaches The contributions represent diverse types of academic institutions offering broad applicability to instructors including community colleges private liberal arts colleges and large state regional public and private universities The book explores a series of key questions about how educators can facilitate meaningful learning experiences with the natural world inside and outside the classroom and it looks at how to foster inclusivity navigate problems with access and explore intersections with environmental justice As a practical guide the book delivers a well provisioned toolbox containing exercises activity guides and assignments for those teaching environmentally focused college courses The Diamond Secret Lenora Worth, 2012-08-07 Inspirational romantic suspense Spine Every Breath Ellie Marney, 2014-10-14 When James Mycroft drags Rachel Watts off on a night mission to the Melbourne Zoo the last thing she expects to find is the mutilated body of Homeless Dave one of Mycroft's numerous eccentric friends But Mycroft's passion for forensics leads him to realize that something about the scene isn't right and he wants Watts to help him investigate the murder While Watts battles her attraction to bad boy Mycroft he's busy getting himself expelled and clashing with the police becoming murder suspect number one When Watts and Mycroft unknowingly reveal too much to the cold blooded killer they find themselves in the lion's den literally A trip to the zoo will never have quite the same meaning to Rachel Watts again Zoo Scientists to the Rescue Patricia Newman, 2017-08-01 Zoos take care of animals and welcome visitors of all ages but that's not all zoos do Author Patricia Newman and photographer Annie Crawley bring readers behind the scenes at three zoos to meet scientists working to save endangered animals Meredith Bastian's experiences studying wild orangutans help educate both zoo visitors and the zoo workers who care for captive orangutans Jeff Baughman breeds black footed ferrets and reintroduces them into the wild And Rachel Santymire examines poop from black rhinoceroses at the zoo and in their natural habitat to benefit all black rhinos Find out how zoo scientists are helping us learn more about these remarkable at risk species before it's too late
