Fernandez,2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that s who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let s take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1993-12 Bibliographic Guide to Education 1994 New York Public Library,New York Public Library Staff,1995 This guide lists materials catalogued by Columbia University Teachers College during 1994 with additional entries from the New York Public Library for selected publications in the field All aspects of education are covered including American elementary and secondary education higher adult education early childhood education history and philosophy of education international and comparative education administration education of the culturally disadvantaged and physically challenged education of minorities education of women and administrative reports of departments of education in the US and abroad The listing is intended as a supplement to the Dictionary Catalogue of the Teachers College Library Columbia University G K Hall 1970 Religion in Life Orientation Chrissie Steyn,2000 Multi religious education is a reality in today s classroom but very few educators have received training in this particular field The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion

,1996 A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi-Faith World Matthew L.N. Wilkinson,2014-10-30 WINNER Cheryl Frank Memorial Prize International Association of Critical Realism A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi Faith World provides a comprehensively theorised and practical approach to thinking systematically and deeply about Islam and Muslims in a multi faith world It makes the case for a contemporary educational philosophy to help young Muslims surmount the challenges of post modernity and to transcend the hiatuses and obstacles that they face in their interaction and relationships with non Muslims and visa versa It argues that the philosophy of critical realism in its original dialectical and metaReal moments so fittingly underlabours Bhaskar 1975 for the contemporary interpretation clarification and conceptual deepening of Islamic doctrine practice and education as to suggest a distinctive branch of critical realist philosophy specifically suited for this purpose This approach is called Islamic Critical Realism The book proceeds to explain how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can serve the interpretation of the consensual elements of Islamic doctrine such as the six elements of Islamic belief and the five pillars of Islamic practice so that these essential features of the Muslim way of life can help Muslim young people to contribute positively to life in multi faith liberal democracies in a globalising world Finally the book shows how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can be brought to bear in humanities classrooms by history religious education and citizenship teachers to help Muslim young people engage informatively and transformatively with themselves and others in multi faith contexts
