Jones,2005 Even a decade after his death Clement Greenberg remains controversial One of the most influential art writers of the twentieth century Greenberg propelled Abstract Expressionist painting in particular the monumental work of Jackson Pollock to a leading position in an international postwar art world On radio and in print Greenberg was the voice of the new American painting and a central figure in the postwar cultural history of the United States Caroline Jones's magisterial study widens Greenberg's fundamental tenet of opticality the idea that modernist art is apprehended through eyesight alone to a broader arena examining how the critic's emphasis on the specular resonated with a society increasingly invested in positivist approaches to the world Greenberg's modernist discourse Jones argues developed in relation to the rationalized procedures that gained wide currency in the United States at midcentury in fields ranging from the sense data protocols theorized by scientific philosophy to the development of cultural forms such as hi fi that targeted specific senses one by one Greenberg's attempt to isolate and celebrate the visual was one manifestation of a large scale segmentation or bureaucratization of the body's senses Working through these historical developments Jones brings Greenberg's theories into contemporary philosophical debates about agency and subjectivity Eyesight Alone offers artists art historians philosophers and all those interested in the arts a critical history of this generative figure bringing his work fully into dialogue with the ideas that shape contemporary critical discourse and shedding light not only on Clement Greenberg but also on the contested history of modernism itself Too Jewish or Not Jewish Enough

Fiona Candlin, 2015-11-05 How would our understanding of museums change if we used the Vintage Wireless Museum or the Museum of Witchcraft as examples rather than the British Museum or the Louvre Although there are thousands of small independent single subject museums in the UK Europe and North America the field of museum studies remains focused almost exclusively on major institutions In this ground breaking new book Fiona Candlin reveals how micromuseums challenge preconceived ideas about what museums are and how they operate Based on extensive fieldwork and analysis of more than fifty micromuseums she shows how they offer dramatically different models of curation interpretation and visitor experience and how their analysis generates new perspectives on subjects such as display objects collections architecture and the public sphere The first ever book dedicated to the subject Micromuseology provides a platform for radically rethinking key debates within museum studies Destined to transform the field it is essential reading for students and researchers in museum studies anthropology material culture studies and visual culture

William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess,2012 In William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess explores Wordsworth s defining role in establishing what he designates as the ecology of authorship a primarily middle class nineteenth century conception of nature associated with aesthetics high culture individualism and nation Instead of viewing Wordsworth as an early ecologist Hess places him within a context that is largely cultural and aesthetic The supposedly universal Wordsworthian vision of nature Hess argues was in this sense specifically male middle class professional and culturally elite factors that continue to shape the environmental movement today

Islam and the Devotional Object Richard J. A. McGregor,2020-05-28 In this book Richard J A McGregor offers a history of Islamic practice through the aesthetic reception of medieval religious objects Elaborate parades in Cairo and Damascus included decorated objects of great value destined for Mecca and Medina Among these were the precious dress sewn yearly for the Kaaba and large colorful sedans mounted on camels which mysteriously completed the Hajj without carrying a single passenger Along with the brisk trade in Islamic relics these objects and the variety of contested meanings attached to them constituted material practices of religion that persisted into the colonial era but were suppressed in the twentieth century McGregor here recovers the biographies of religious objects including relics banners public texts and coverings for the Ka ba

Reconstructing the premodern visual culture of Islamic Egypt and Syria he follows the shifting meanings attached to objects of devotion as well as the contingent nature of religious practice and experience The Postethnic Literary Florian Sedlmeier, 2014-12-11 The book explores the discursive and theoretical conditions for conceptualizing the postethnic literary It historicizes US multicultural and postcolonial studies as institutionalized discursive formations which constitute a paratext that regulates the reception of literary texts according to the paradigm of representativeness Rather than following that paradigm the study offers an alternative framework by rereading contemporary literary texts for their investment in literary form By means of self reflective intermedial transpositions the writings of Sherman Alexie Chang rae Lee and Jamaica Kincaid insist upon a differentiation between the representation of cultural sign systems or subject positions and the dramatization of individual gestures of authorship As such they form a postethnic literary constellation further probed in the epilogue of the study focused on Dave Eggers Fashion Curating Annamari Vänskä, Hazel Clark, 2017-12-28 As the practice of fashion curation extends into commercial galleries public and retail spaces and even to the individual self professional concepts of curating are undergoing rapid change Today everyone is seemingly able to curate but where does this leave the traditional understanding of curation as clothing collected and displayed in a museum This thought provoking volume explores the practice of fashion curating in the 21st century bridging the gap between methods of display and notions of the curatorial in fashion exhibitions commercial settings and the virtual world From fashion s earliest forays into the museum to creative collaborations between luxury fashion brands and artists this book challenges understandings of fashion curation by drawing on the palpably new spaces places and actors in today s curating scene Exploring poetic and performative museum displays in venues such as the V A Somerset House MoMu and the Royal Ontario Museum alongside the ways that brands such as Dior Chanel and Louis Vuitton have made use of the curatorial in their own commercial strategies Fashion Curating asks pressing questions about controversial funding and collaboration from the commercial fashion sector and the limitations of producing exhibitions that are at the same time critical and popular Bringing together approaches from fashion curators designers and world renowned academics curation is positioned as a critical practice that opens up new ways of conceptualizing and theorizing fashion challenging how we think and what we already know From Emerson to King Anita Haya Patterson, 1997-06-26 This book traces a provocative line from Emerson s work on race reform and identity to work by three influential African American thinkers W E B Du Bois Martin Luther King Jr and Cornel West each of whom offers subtle engagement with both the tradition of written protest and the critique of liberalism Emerson shaped Emerson has been cast in recent debate as either an antinomian or an ideologue as either subversive of institutional controls or indebted to capitalism Here Patterson contributes a more nuanced view probing Emerson s record and its cultural and historical matrix to document a fundamental rhetoric of contradiction a strategic aligning of opposed political concepts that enabled him to both affirm and critique elements of the liberal democratic model Drawing richly on topics in political philosophy law religion and cultural history Patterson examines the nature and implications of Emerson s contradictory rhetoric in parts I and II In part III she considers Emerson s legacy from the perspective of African American intellectual history identifying fresh continuities and crucial discontinuities between the canonical strain of protest writing Emerson helped establish and African American literary and philosophical traditions
