Making Institutions Work:

Making Global Institutions Work Kate Brennan, 2014-09-19 This book seeks to think differently about what we recognize as global institutions and how they could work better for the people who need them most By so doing the contributions show that there is a group of institutions that influence enough people's lives in significant enough ways through what they protect provide or enable that they should be considered together as global institutions The United Nations the World Bank the internet as well as private military and security companies leave a heavy footprint on the social political and economic landscape of the planet We are all aware in different ways of the existence of these global institutions but their importance in achieving change in the twenty first century is often underestimated In this book contributors seek to explain what associations exist between change in global institutions and the reduction of poverty and inequality as well as the achievement of security and justice The work makes sense of processes of change and identifies the most significant obstacles that exist offering suggestions for future action that will be of interest to students and scholars of global institutions

Making International Institutions Work Ranjit Lall, 2023-02-23 International institutions are essential for tackling many of the most urgent challenges facing the world from pandemics to humanitarian crises yet we know little about when they succeed when they fail and why This book proposes a new theory of institutional performance and tests it using a diverse array of sources including the most comprehensive dataset on the topic Challenging popular characterizations of international institutions as runaway bureaucracies Ranjit Lall argues that the most serious threat to performance comes from the pursuit of narrow political interests by states paradoxically the same actors who create and give purpose to institutions The discreet operational processes through which international bureaucrats cultivate and sustain autonomy vis vis governments he contends are critical to making institutions work The findings enhance our understanding of international cooperation public goods and organizational behavior while offering practical lessons to policymakers NGOs businesses and citizens interested in improving institutional effectiveness

Making Local Democracy Work in India Harihar Bhattacharyya, 2002

The Policy Making Process in the Criminal Justice System Adrian Barton, Nick Johns, 2012-12-07 How the state deals with crime and criminality is a major issue for all students of criminology and criminal justice This book offers a fresh perspective on the policy making process in the criminal justice system of England and Wales by presenting a detailed overview of both the theory behind it and how it plays out in practice with contemporary policy examples The key features of this text include a detailed analysis of the basic political concepts surrounding the relationship between the citizen and the state as well as an overview of the state departments organizations and individuals who are instrumental in creating and influencing policy This book also analyses how criminal justice policy is interpreted and implemented on the street and comprises a range of discussion points and suggested further readings By taking a unique criminal justice focussed approach to policy making this text is perfect for the undergraduate taking modules in criminology criminal justice policing the voluntary sector and social and public policy It will also be of interest to those who are taking more vocational routes and practitioners

Law-Making in the People's Republic of China Jianfu Chen, Yuwen Li, Jan Michiel Otto, Maurice V. Polak, 2021-10-25 Who are the legislators and what are the products of the legislative process in China How does a law come into being What meaning should we ascribe to these legislative products from the perspective of legal certainty Can we recognise a Chinese approach to or style of law making What technical legislative problems have Chinese jurists identified and what sorts of solutions to them are being considered These are the questions which Law making in the PRC attempts to solve The volume opens with papers on the historical perspective of law making on ideology and law making and on a comparison between the PRC's legal framework and the frameworks of other legal systems Part II deals with various Institutions and Actors involved and offers analyses of the National People's Congress the State Council departmental rule making local law making law making in autonomous regions public participation and the proposed law on law making by academics Part III offers three case studies in which important areas of legal development are analysed from a law making point of view The selected areas are administrative law contract law and criminal law

The Crucial Challenge for International Aid: Making the Donor-Recipient Relationship Work to Prevent Catastrophe Mirek Karasek, Jennifer P. Tanabe, 2014-11-25 This book uses simple algebra and statistical analysis to map and define possible solutions to a grave problem the world is facing today the relationship between developed Have countries that act as donors in giving international aid to developing Have not recipient countries These societies have differences stemming from diverse cultural and religious histories that have led to moral ethical and cognitive behavior in many recipient countries that is incomparably irreversibly and increasingly heterogeneous from donor societies The analysis proves that any donor recipient co operation that stresses human rights government transparency accountability and law enforcement capabilities in the recipient together with virtually free immigration to any donor society is counterproductive to the point of causing complete socioeconomic and political melt down in both recipient and donor nations A promising alternative solution to this Doomsday Scenario is developed

Oyaya, Nana Poku, 2018-05-11 Kenya like the rest of Africa has gone through three sets of constitutional crises The first related to the trauma of colonialism and struggle for independence The second a period of constitutional dictatorship and the clamor for reform The third most recent crisis being one of identity legitimacy and the inability of the state to discharge its functions which has resulted in civil unrest violent ethnic conflicts poverty social exclusion and inequality The Making of the Constitution of Kenya examines the processes issues and challenges of constitution making governance and legitimacy in that country and the lessons that can be learned for others on the continent Equipping the reader with a sound historical perspective on constitutional developments and the crisis of constitutional legitimacy in Kenya it gives an invaluable insight into the normative and political complexities involved in evolving a truly democratic and widely acceptable constitutional order in Africa

Understanding Influence Thomas Waldman, Sultan Barakat, 2016-02-24 The overarching objective of this book is to analyse the manner in which statebuilding oriented research has and can influence policies in fragile post conflict environments Large scale externally assisted statebuilding is a relatively new and distinct foreign policy domain having risen to the forefront of the international agenda as the negative consequences of state weakness have been repeatedly revealed in the form of entrenched poverty regional instability and serious threats to international security Despite the increasing volume of research on statebuilding the use and uptake of findings by those involved in policymaking remains largely under examined As such the main themes running through the book relate to issues of research influence use and uptake into policy It grapples with problems associated with decision making dynamics knowledge management and the policy process and draws on concepts and analytical models developed within the public policy and research utilisation literature This book will be of great interest to researchers knowledge managers and policymakers working in the fields of post war reconstruction statebuilding fragile states stabilisation conflict and development

The Politics of Contemporary Art Biennials Panos Kompatsiaris, 2017-03-31 Contemporary art biennials are sites of prestige innovation and experimentation where the category of art is meant to be in perpetual motion rearranged and redefined opening itself to the world and its contradictions They are sites of a seemingly peaceful cohabitation between the elitist and the popular where the likes of Jeff Koons encounter the likes of Guy Debord where Angela Davis and Frantz Fanon share the same ground with neoliberal cultural policy makers and creative entrepreneurs Building on the legacy of events that conjoin art critical theory and counterculture from Nova Convention to documenta X the new biennial blends the modalities of protest with a neoliberal politics of creativity This book examines a strained period for these high art institutions a period when their politics are brought into question and often boycotted in the context of austerity crisis and the rise of Occupy cultures Using the 3rd Athens Biennale and the 7th Berlin Biennale as its main case studies it looks at how the in built tensions between the domains of art and politics take shape when spectacular displays attempt to operate as immediate activist sites Drawing on ethnographic research and contemporary cultural theory this book argues that biennials both denunciate the aesthetic as bourgeois category and simultaneously replicate and diffuse an exclusive sociability across social landscapes      Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko Saarinen,Christian M. Rogerson,C. Michael Hall,2019-09-19 Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies      The Palgrave Handbook of Gender and Development Wendy Harcourt,2016-04-29 With original and engaging contributions this Handbook confirms feminist scholarship in development studies as a vibrant research field It reveals the diverse ways that feminist theory and practice inform and shape gender analysis and development policies bridging generations of feminists from different institutions disciplines and regions      Free Trade and Social Conflict in Colombia, Peru and Venezuela René De La Pedraja,2016-08-26 Foreign capital and free trade policies have provoked fierce conflicts in South America in recent years People in Colombia and Peru engaged in often violent clashes to defend their livelihoods against the encroachments of the free market and the impositions of Wall Street Farmers organized to save their lands from foreign mining corporations and cities fought to save their water from contamination Native Americans blocked highways to preserve ancestral lands while students paralyzed universities and called for reforms to higher education The shift toward socialism in Venezuela led by President Hugo Chavez was bitterly opposed by privileged groups Governments tried to quell the turmoil through repression political maneuvering and propaganda This book provides a dramatic account of the struggles      Sci-Fi Ultimate Collection: 170+ Space Adventures, Dystopian Novels & Lost World Classics Jules Verne,Mark Twain,Robert Louis Stevenson,James Fenimore Cooper,Edgar Allan Poe,William Hope Hodgson,George MacDonald,Percy Greg,Jack London,Arthur Conan Doyle,Ernest Bramah,Jonathan Swift,Cleveland Moffett,William Morris,Sinclair Lewis,Anthony Trollope,Richard Jefferies,Samuel Butler,Milo Hastings,David Lindsay,Edward Everett Hale,Edward Bellamy,H.
