Making Dystopia James Stevens Curl,2018-08-23 In Making Dystopia distinguished architectural historian James Stevens Curl tells the story of the advent of architectural Modernism in the aftermath of the First World War its protagonists and its astonishing almost global acceptance after 1945 He argues forcefully that the triumph of architectural Modernism in the second half of the twentieth century led to massive destruction the creation of alien urban landscapes and a huge waste of resources Moreover the coming of Modernism was not an inevitable seamless evolution as many have insisted but a massive unparalleled disruption that demanded a clean slate and the elimination of all ornament decoration and choice Tracing the effects of the Modernist revolution in architecture to the present Stevens Curl argues that with each passing year so called iconic architecture by supposed star architects has become more and more bizarre unsettling and expensive ignoring established contexts and proving to be stratospherically remote from the aspirations and needs of humanity In the elite world of contemporary architecture form increasingly follows finance and in a society in which the haves have more and more and the have nots are ever more marginalized he warns that contemporary architecture continues to stack up huge potential problems for the future as housing costs spiral out of control resources are squandered on architectural bling and society fractures This courageous passionate deeply researched and profoundly argued book should be read by everyone concerned with what is around us Its combative critique of the entire Modernist architectural project and its apologists will be highly controversial to many But it contains salutary warnings that we ignore at our peril And it asks awkward questions to which answers are long overdue

Karl,2013-01-11 Though the relationship of modernist writers and artists to mass marketplaces and popular cultural forms is often understood as one of ambivalence if not antagonism Modernism and the Marketplace redirects this established line of inquiry considering the practical and conceptual interfaces between literary practice and dominant economic institutions and ideas Modernism and the Post-Colonial Peter Childs,2007-06-09 This book considers the shifts in aesthetic representation over the period 1885 1930 that coincide both with the rise of literary Modernism and imperialism s high point If it is no coincidence that the rise of the novel accompanied the expansion of empire in the eighteenth century then the historical conditions of fiction as the empire waned are equally pertinent Peter Childs argues that modernist literary writing should be read in terms of its response and relationship to events overseas and that it should be seen as moving towards an emergent post colonialism instead of struggling with a residual colonial past Beginning by offering an analysis of the generational and gender conflict that spans art and empire in the period Childs moves on to examine modernism's expression of a crisis of belief in relation to subjectivity space and time Finally he investigates the war as a turning point in both colonial relations and aesthetic experimentation Each of the core chapters focuses on one key writer and discusses a range of others including Conrad Lawrence Kipling Eliot Woolf Joyce Conan Doyle and Haggard Boston Modern Judith Arlene Bookbinder, 2005 A fresh incisive study of the expressionist approach to modern art in Boston
