Jane E. Goodman

Making Of Contemporary Algeria 1830 1987:

The Making of Contemporary Algeria, 1830-1987 Mahfoud Bennoune, 2002-08-22 An analytical account of Algerian economic development emphasising post independence policies up to 1987 Democratization and Competitive Authoritarianism in Africa Matthijs Bogaards, Sebastian Elischer, 2016-02-26 The special issue revisits Levitsky and Way's seminal study on Competitive Authoritarianism 2010 The contributions by North American European and African scholars deepen our understanding of the emergence trajectories and outcomes of hybrid regimes across the African continent

Women and the City in French Literature and Culture Siobhán McIlvanney, Gillian Ni Cheallaigh, 2019-05-15 Interdisciplinarity this book covers a range of media and genres from cinema to journalism to novels and a range of disciplines from feminism film studies Francophone studies history etc which allows readers to access a particularly extensive range of disciplines within one volume and to make informed comparisons Transhistoricism the chronological range of essays included in this journal from the medieval period through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the present demonstrates that women have always managed to access their own territory within the masculinised urban environment and this encourages readers to rethink previous gendered assumptions about women and the city Feminism the essays here form part of the wider movement in academic research to redress the gendered imbalance of perspectives on a range of subjects here allowing us to look anew at French and Francophone culture and history as part of this feminist rewriting War, Strategy and the Modern State, 1792-1914 Carl Cavanagh Hodge, 2016-11-25 This book is a comparative study of military operations conducted by modern states between the French Revolution and World War I It examines the complex relationship between political purpose and strategy on the one hand and the challenge of realizing strategic goals through military operations on the other It argues further that following the experience of the Napoleonic Wars military strength was awarded a primary status in determining the comparative modernity of all the Great Powers that military goals came progressively to distort a sober understanding of the national interest that a genuinely political and diplomatic understanding of national strategy was lost and that these developments collectively rendered the military and political catastrophe of 1914 not inevitable yet probable Ruling But Not Governing Steven A. Cook, 2007-05-01 Ruling But Not Governing highlights the critical role that the military plays in the stability of the Egyptian Algerian and until recently Turkish political systems This in depth study demonstrates that while the soldiers and materiel of Middle Eastern militaries form the obvious outer perimeter of regime protection it is actually the less apparent multilayered institutional legacies of military domination that play the decisive role in regime maintenance Steven A Cook uncovers the complex and nuanced character of the military's interest in maintaining a facade of democracy He explores how an authoritarian elite hijack seemingly democratic practices such as elections multiparty politics and a relatively freer press as part of a strategy to ensure the durability of authoritarian systems Using Turkey's recent reforms as a point of departure the study also explores ways external political actors can improve the likelihood of political change in Egypt and Algeria Ruling But Not Governing provides valuable insight into the political dynamics that perpetuate authoritarian regimes and offers novel ways to promote democratic change

The Price of Wealth Kiren Aziz

Chaudhry, 2015-11-06 The emerging consensus that institutions shape political and economic outcomes has produced few theories of institutional change and no defensible theory of institutional origination Kiren Aziz Chaudhry shows how state and market institutions are created and transformed in Saudi Arabia and Yemen two countries that typify labor and oil exporters in the developing worlds In a world where the international economy dramatically affects domestic developments the question of where institutions come from becomes at once more urgent and more complex In both Saudi Arabia and Yemen fundamental state and market institutions forged during a period of isolation at the end of World War I were destroyed and reshaped not once but three times in response to exogenous shocks Comparing boom bust cycles Chaudhry exposes the alternating social and organizational origins of institutions arguing that both broad changes in the international economy and specific forms of international integration shape institutional outcomes Labor and oil exporters thus experience identical economic cycles but generate radically different state market and financial institutions in response to different resource flows Chaudhry supplemented years of field work in Saudi Arabia and Yemen with extensive analysis of previously unavailable materials in the Saudi national archives

Colonial Migrants and Racism N. MacMaster, 1997-04-23 The first comprehensive study in English of the earliest and largest Third World migration into pre war Europe Full attention is given to the relationship between the society of emigration undermined by colonialism and processes of ethnic organisation in the metropolitan context Contemporary anti Algerian racism is shown to have deep roots in moves by colonial elites to control and police the migrants and to segregate them from contact with Communism nationalist movements and the French working class

Islam and Democracy John L. Esposito, John Obert Voll, 1996 Are Islam and democracy on a collision course Do Islamic movements seek to hijack democracy How have governments in the Muslim world responded to the many challenges of Islam and democracy today A global religious resurgence and calls for greater political participation have been major forces in the post Cold War period Across the Muslim world governments and Islamic movements grapple with issues of democratization and civil society Islam and Democracy explores the Islamic sources beliefs and institutions relevant to the current debate over greater political participation and democratization Esposito and Voll use six case studies Algeria Egypt Iran Malaysia Pakistan and Sudan to look at the diversity of Muslim experiences and experiments At one end of the spectrum Iran and Sudan represent two cases of militant revolutionary Islam establishing political systems In Pakistan and Malaysia however the new movements have been recognized and made part of the political process Egypt and Algeria reveal the coexistence of both extremist and moderate Islamic activism and demonstrate the complex challenges confronting ruling elites These case studies prove that despite commonalities differing national contexts and identities give rise to a multiplicity of agendas and strategies This broad spectrum of case studies reflecting the multifaceted relationship of Islam and

Democracy provides important insight into the powerful forces of religious resurgence and democratization which will inevitably impact global politics in the twenty first century

Political Creativity Gerald Berk, Dennis C. Galvan, Victoria Hattam, 2013-11-14 Political Creativity intervenes in the lively debate currently underway in the social sciences on institutional change Editors Gerald Berk Dennis C Galvan and Victoria Hattam along with the contributors to the volume show how institutions inevitably combine order and change because formal rules and roles are always available for reconfiguration Creative action is not the exception but the very process through which all political formations are built promulgated and changed Drawing on the rich cache of antidualist theoretical traditions from poststructuralism and ecological theory to constructivism and pragmatism a diverse group of scholars probes acts of social innovation in many locations land boards in Botswana Russian labor relations international statistics global supply chains Islamic economics in Algeria Islamic sects and state authority in Senegal and civil rights reform colonization industrial policy and political consulting in the United States These political scientists reconceptualize agency as a relational process that continually reorders the nature and meaning of people and things order as an assemblage that necessitates creative tinkering and interpretation and change as the unruly politics of time that confounds the conventional ordering of past present and future Political Creativity offers analytical tools for reimagining order and change as entangled processes Contributors Stephen Amberg Chris Ansell Gerald Berk Kevin Bruyneel Dennis C Galvan Deborah Harrold Victoria Hattam Yoshiko M Herrera Gary Herrigel Joseph Lowndes Ato Kwamena Onoma Adam Sheingate Rudra Sil Ulrich Voskamp Volker Wittke
