Making Of The West Indies:

The Making of the West Indies F. R. Augier, 1960 This book is intended to meet the requirements of three G C E O level syllabuses in West Indian history     The making of the West Indies ,1980     The Making of the West Indies F. R. Augier, 1963

The Making of the West Indies F. R. Augier, 1974     Canes and Chains Elizabeth M. Halcrow, 1982

Making West Indian Literature Mervyn Morris, 2005 West Indian Literature as a body of work is a fairly recent phenomenon and literary criticism has not always acknowledged the diversity of approaches to writing effectively In Making West Indian Literature poet and critic Mervyn Morris explores examples of West Indian creativity shaping a range of responses to experience which often includes colonial traces Appreciating various kinds of making and a number of West Indian makers these engaging essays and interviews display a recurrent interest in the processes of composition Some of the prices highlight writer performers who have not often been examined This very readable book often personal in tone makes a distinctive contribution to the knowledge and understanding of West Indian Literature     The Making of the West Indies

Heritage Jack Brierley Watson, 1979     West Indian Bulletin ,1901     The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions

Michelle A. Gonzalez, Michelle Gonzalez Maldonado, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions offers a comprehensive overview of Caribbean religions The Caribbean is a microcosm of the world s religions but the small geographic space resulted in the encounter of global religions and indigenous religious practices The racial ethnic and cultural diversity of this region makes brief introductions to Caribbean religions incapable of truly addressing its complex and diverse religious landscape The Handbook also elaborates on the diversity of the religious traditions and the national particularity of the region while also considering multiple geographic settings It mentions how often Caribbean religion is studied through the perspective of a discrete religious tradition or geographic setting     Commerce Reports United States.

Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, 1916     West Indian Migrants Robert Barry Davison, 1962     Caribbean and

Atlantic Diaspora Dance Yvonne Daniel, 2011-11-01 In Caribbean and Atlantic Diaspora Dance Igniting Citizenship Yvonne Daniel provides a sweeping cultural and historical examination of diaspora dance genres In discussing relationships among African Caribbean and other diasporic dances Daniel investigates social dances brought to the islands by Europeans and Africans including quadrilles and drum dances as well as popular dances that followed such as Carnival parading Pan Caribbean danzas rumba merengue mambo reggae and zouk Daniel reviews sacred dance and closely documents combat dances such as Martinican ladjá Trinidadian kalinda and Cuban juego de man In drawing on scores of performers and consultants from the region as well as on her own professional dance experience and acumen Daniel adeptly places Caribbean dance in the context of cultural and economic globalization connecting local practices to transnational and global processes and emphasizing the important role of dance in critical regional tourism      Youth Participation in the Caribbean Terri-Ann Gilbert-Roberts, 2022-03-10 Critically examining narratives of participation in governance and development this volume adds Caribbean voices and experiences to the global discourse on youth participation The essays provide empirical case studies of institutions practices and processes of youth engagement in the politics of Caribbean development orienting the reader to the political culture of the Caribbean and the position of youth within small societies Covering experiences at intergovernmental national and local levels as well as formal and informal modes of participation it examines how young people have organised themselves or have been organised to engage with the state and with community agents in politics public policy and activism It illustrates the heterogeneity of youth political participation employing multi disciplinary multi level and mixed method analyses from the fields of demography political science social policy development studies and youth development Critical themes addressed include regional governance democratic representation online engagement local governance and community development In exploring these themes the book discusses the legitimacy and inclusiveness of governance in relation to age gender race geography and socio economic status The findings will be useful to students researchers and policymakers alike who are keen to improve governance and contribute to inclusive sustainable development in the Caribbean      The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others      The Westminster Review ,1892      The Making of the West Indies Fitzroy R. Augier, 1997
