

The background of the book cover is a detailed, multi-colored illustration. It depicts a scene of historical significance, likely the Columbian Exchange. In the foreground, a Native American man in traditional dress is shown in a dynamic pose, possibly dancing or performing. Behind him, several European men in 16th-century attire are engaged in various activities, including one who appears to be writing or drawing. The background features industrial elements like large wheels and structures, suggesting a setting of early modern exploration and trade.
