children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used. The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e.g. author, genre, character. Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon. The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory. Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e.g. semiotics, feminist, psychoanalytic, an example of its application to a literary text, a number of activities, study questions, reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations.

Talking Beyond the Page Janet Evans, 2020-10-28

Talking Beyond the Page shows how different kinds of picturebooks can be used with children of all ages and highlights the positive educational gains to be made from reading, sharing, talking, and writing about picturebooks. With contributions from some of the world's leading experts, chapters in this book consider how children think about and respond to visual images and other aspects of picturebooks; children's responses can be qualitatively improved by encouraging them to think and talk about picturebooks before, during, and after reading them; the non-text features of picturebooks when considered in their own right can help readers to make more sense out of the book; different kinds of picturebooks, such as wordless, postmodern, multimodal, and graphic novels, are structured so children can respond creatively to picturebooks as art forms; picturebooks can help children deal with complex issues in their lives. Talking beyond the Page also includes an exclusive interview with Anthony Browne who shares thoughts about his work as an author/illustrator. This inspiring and thought-provoking book is essential reading for teachers, student teachers, literacy
