Living the Death of Democracy in Spain Susana Belenguer, Ciaran Cosgrove, James Whiston, 2017-10-02 This volume brings together new interdisciplinary perspectives on the Spanish Civil War its victims its contentious ending and its aftermath In exploring the slow demise of the Spanish Republic and the course of the Civil War the authors have chosen to range in turn over cinematic literary and historical depictions of the era In addition reactions elsewhere in Europe to the Spanish conflict are examined the role of the International Brigades is looked at afresh the fate of children displaced during the Civil War is explored and the Spanish anarcho syndicalist movement is revisited The volume shows that to be any kind of soldier in the armies of the Republic or even to be seen as a Republican sympathiser was to become a non person in the new order in Spain under Franco and sets what supporters of the Republic had to endure within the wider European and international context of the period This book offers timely fresh insights into the failure of the Spanish Republic and into a society that tried in vain to unite its divided people during what was a seismic era in Spain s history This book was originally published as a special issue of Bulletin of Spanish Studies

Living on Fire Daniel Kelly, 2014-03-25 A triumph A moving beautifully written biography National Review From the beginning L Brent Bozell seemed destined for great things An extraordinary orator the young man with fiery red hair won a national debate competition in high school and later was elected president of Yale s storied Political Union where his debating partner was his close friend William F Buckley Jr In less than a decade after graduating from Yale Bozell helped Buckley launch National Review became a popular columnist and speaker and most famously wrote Barry Goldwater s landmark book The Conscience of a Conservative But after setting his sights on high political office Bozell took a different route in the 1960s He abruptly moved his family to Spain he founded a traditional Catholic magazine Triumph that quickly turned radical he repudiated on religious grounds the U S Constitution he made it his mission to transform America into a Catholic nation he led the nation s first major antiabortion protest featuring a militant group known as the Sons of Thunder he severed ties with his erstwhile friends from the conservative movement including Buckley who was also his brother in law By the mid 1970s Bozell had fallen prey to bipolar disorder and alcoholism leading life as if manacled to a roller coaster Biographer Daniel Kelly tells Bozell s remarkable story vividly and with sensitivity in Living on Fire To write this book Kelly interviewed dozens of friends and family members and gained unprecedented access to Bozell's private correspondence. The result is a richly textured portrait of a gifted complex man, his triumphs as well as his struggles. What Makes Life Worth Living Sherwood Sweet Knight, 1912 Feeling Sick: The Early Years of AIDS in Spain Dean Allbritton, 2023-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM. The earliest traceable accounts of the AIDS outbreak in Spain began to emerge during its political transition to democracy with small clusters of cases appearing as early as 1981. HIV/AIDS would go on to shape Spain throughout its pivotal period as a fledgling democracy underpinning the cultural explosions of the Movida, a sharp rise in intravenous drug use and the struggles of a coalescing LGBT community. Feeling Sick: The Early Years of HIV/AIDS in Spain examines the cultural history of these early years of HIV/AIDS in Spain as it has been told through television and print media, ephemeral products of visual culture, fiction, film, and the so-called risk groups that lived through the epidemic. The book draws on the work of Raymond Williams to characterize this emergent period within a structure of feeling sick and thus defined by discordant voices, disagreement, and meaning-making in a period of history in formation. Through close readings of Spanish visual culture and media alongside analysis of historical and medical documents, it asserts that a structure of feeling sick begins to coalesce around the emergence of HIV/AIDS and traces out a distinctive sense of living through history as it unfolds. By critically evaluating a selection of cultural materials, this book claims that the earliest years of the HIV/AIDS epidemic in Spain reveal common fears about global connectivity, the proliferation of vulnerable ties to others, and the potential of cultural and physical contaminations. Ultimately, Feeling Sick challenges the dominant narratives in which life and disease are seen as separate and unequal and in which illness is only destructive and devastating. An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM. The Living Age, 1918 How and where to Earn a Living R. L. Thomas, 1878 Economic Conditions in Spain Great Britain. Dept. of Overseas Trade, 1921 Cultures of Mass Tourism Pau Obrador Pons, 2016-05-13 With more than 230 million international tourists a year, the Mediterranean region is the largest tourist destination in the world. This book outlines that its economic importance is matched by its significance as a cultural and aesthetic phenomenon. Through a series of ethnographic insights into some of the key sites of mass Mediterranean tourism, it focuses on package tourists' experiences of the serial banal and depthless spaces that are mushrooming along the coast and the enchantments, dissolutions, and dreams that saturate them. Moving away from the notion of authentic places corrupted by mass tourism, the book shows how new forms and spaces are made and remade by the mobilities and performances of locals, workers, and tourists. Finally, the book looks at the complex materialities of mass tourism and the many networks that make it possible. Living Politics, Making Music Jan Fairley, edited by Simon Frith, Ian Christie, 2016-05-13 The late Jan Fairley (1949–2012) was a key figure in making world music a significant topic for popular music studies and an influential contributor to such world music magazines as
