Resisting Citizenship Deanna Dadusc,Margherita Grazioli,Miguel A. Martínez,2021-04-30

Migrants squats are an essential part of the corridors of solidarity that are being created throughout Europe where grassroots social movements engaged in anti racist anarchist and anti authoritarian politics coalesce with migrants in devising non institutional responses to the violence of border regimes This book focuses on migrants self organised housing strategies in Europe and the collective squatting of buildings and land In these spaces contentious politics and everyday social reproduction uproot racist and xenophobic regimes The struggles emerging in these spaces disrupt host guest relations which often perpetuate state imposed hierarchies and humanitarian disciplining technologies The solidarities and collaborations between undocumented and documented activists in these radical spaces enable possibilities for inhabitation beyond against and within citizenship These do not only reverse forms of exclusion and repression but produce ungovernable resources alliances and subjectivities that prefigure more livable spaces for all The contributions to this book address these struggles as forms of commoning as they constitute autonomous socio political infrastructures and networks of solidarity beyond and against the state and humanitarian provision The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Citizenship Studies Arthur's Home Magazine ,1886
