Teaching Poetry in the Primary Classroom Gervase Phinn,2009-01-05 When asked by the school inspector what he thought of poetry an eleven year old replied that it s all la dida and daffodils isn t it In his primary school the boy had come across very little poetry apart from nursery rhymes snatches of rhyming verse and a few comic pieces and nonsense poems Poetry to him was something arcane not really related to his own life He had studied no powerful challenging contemplative arresting quirky poems and had written very few poems himself His teacher admitted that he was no English specialist had received few ideas at college on the teaching of poetry and didn t really know where to start As children progress through the primary school they need to be exposed to a rich diet of poetry and encouraged to read perform and write it themselves Providing a varied and stimulating environment is essential if is to flourish In addition children need specific guidance and ideas to start them off writing their own poems This book written by a former teacher and school inspector and popular and widely published children's poet offers an accessible practical and structured programme for the teaching of this sometimes neglected aspect of the English curriculum Poetry in Literature for Youth Angela Leeper, 2006-03-28 Poetry in Literature for Youth offers teachers librarians parents and students with an instrumental guide for incorporating all forms of poetry into the curriculum More than 900 annotated entries provide descriptions of books and other resources including anthologies classics various poetry formats poetry novels multicultural poetry performance poetry teen poetry poet biographies and curriculum connections Educators who are often unaware of the poetry resources available particularly for young adults will welcome this book with open arms Lists for building a core poetry collection along with resources for teaching poetry criticism and writing electronic poetry resources booktalks classroom activities and lesson plans complement this guide Author Geographic Grade Subject and Title indexes are also included For anyone interested in knowing more about poetry in literature this is an indispensable guide Test Talk Glennon Doyle Melton, Amy H. Greene, 2023-10-10 Under No Child Left Behind nearly every teacher faces a high stakes balancing act managing the often incompatible responsibilities of teaching students meaningfully or preparing them for standardized tests Through their experiences teaching at a school that struggled to meet state test standards driven by NCLB authors Amy Greene and Glennon Melton discovered a way to raise scores without compromising their strong beliefs about good teaching and learning Their concise and easy to use book Test Talk Integrating Test Preparation Into Reading Workshop includes lesson plans and practice passages as well as sample questions and suggested language to use during lessons This compelling book shows that teachers don't have to choose between best practice teaching and test preparation effective test taking strategies can be integrated into authentic reading instruction The authors demonstrate how to improve performance on tests without resorting to teaching to the test mnemonic devices or other gimmicks Instead they focus on encouraging student readers to explore tests as a specific genre containing unique language format and cues Throughout the book classroom vignettes show how seamlessly one can weave the test genre into reading workshop and connect those specialized skills to more general reading strategies It is an invaluable resource for any teacher who struggles with how to prepare kids for tests without sacrificing real teaching and learning Terror and Everyday Life Jonathan Lake Crane, 1994-09-19 He persuasively demonstrates that horror films are not merely a manifestation of the solitary unconscious or cultural abjection This well crafted insightful and devilishly witty study brings horror out from under the psychoanalytic rock to let it scurry and bleed in the daylight of everyday life The detailed endnotes are scintillating gems in and of themselves Choice Terror and Everyday Life is an important well conceived and well executed work Crane's treatment of the topic is unusual he clearly positions himself as a fan of the contemporary horror film Consequently there are moments that seem to revel in the disgusting details of murder and mayhem However this approach is appropriate as Crane makes perfectly clear this is what the genre is about so to ignore it would be to misrepresent its effects and for horror fans its pleasures This is a complex scholarly work exceptionally original Charles R Acland Communication Department The University of Calgary Alberta Canada How does horror in film relate to the horror we experience in everyday life This is one of the key questions addressed in this new examination of the horror film genre Terror and Everyday Life argues that today s horror films have broken away from the genre s tradition to embrace far more violent imagery images that are in keeping with the escalating violence in our society By examining the horror film its history and its current trends Jonathan Lake Crane furthers our understanding of the genre s meaning in today s culture and our fascination with violence An important supplement for courses in popular culture media studies and film Terror and Everyday Life s unique approach on the nature of horror in our society will also be of interest in a wide range of disciplines The Reading Connection Liz Knowles,Martha Smith,1997-02-15 Establishing a book club is a great way to involve parents in promoting literacy to young readers This book shows you how to start a book club in your school or community and it provides bibliographies of literature resources for children Suggested topics and sample book club sessions help you get started and an extensive bibliography arranged by genre guides teachers parents and students in selecting reading material Chapters cover read alouds picture books horror stories multicultural literature poetry science fiction nonfiction and reference bibliotherapy and problem novels award winning books biographies and books in a series For each genre the authors offer a general overview suggest discussion questions provide a bibliography and list resources for further reading Helpful Internet addresses and additional topics are included in the concluding chapter Monsters and More Elizabeth Cole Midgley,2008-09-01 Make your classroom a place of celebration with the creative ideas in this packet that focus on monsters and ghosts Each special day includes suggestions for incorporating it into your regular curriculum such as language arts social studies math science and sensory experiences The celebrations in this packet include Bela Lugosi s Birthday Ghostly Fun Day and Monster Mania Day With these ideas your students will have fun and look forward to learning DIY Programming and Book Displays Amanda Catherine Struckmeyer,Svetha Hetzler,2010-09-13 This manual guides librarians in creating simple affordable ready to use activities for children tweens teens and families with enough material for a full year of programs Do it yourself programming is an emerging model in which the librarian does the preparation then lets patrons take over DIY Programming and Book Displays How to Stretch Your Programming without Stretching Your Budget and Staff makes it easy for librarians to institute such programs in their own facilities Organized around 12 thematic chapters the book explains how to set up and maintain a do it yourself station and offers instructions for a variety of year activities Reproducible materials and booklists are included as well Librarians may use the activities as starting points for generating their own ideas or they may simply photocopy materials in the book for ready to use monthly DIY programming Once set up the DYI station is available to patrons anytime they are in the library Best of all because DIY programs do not rely on staff space or special materials they allow libraries to
