Adedibu, Felicity Apaah, Okelloh Ogera, Benson O.

Igboin, 2024-10-04 The idea of megachurch is pivotal to the nature characteristics and vision of megachurches as a social divine structure grounded on the belief in grand mega God whose omnipotence is revealed encountered and dramatised in space and place Although the concept of megachurch has been discursively and theoretically problematic sprouting and scouting for a big idea grasping that is in itself elusive the book takes a pragmatic detour to engage and nuance and also beat into manageable shape what can readily be construed as megachurch at least in Africa It argues that megachurch is not only related to from the prism of its exponentiality and grandiosity a feature that is pervasive in its conceptualisation but it is also much more inserted into a socio cultural political and religious context that is at once empirical and relatable responsible and responsive daring and appealing local and transnational spiritual and mundane controversial and soothing The institutionalisation of megachurch legitimises its existence radar and reach in terms of social mobilisation charismatics and incarnationality Central to the praxis of megachurches is digital turn that zooms out the Mega Mega powers and affluence of mega pastors mega narratives mega miracles and mega messes All of this is sited and situated most profoundly within the mega failure of state to be responsible and account for mega wealth that African political rulers vanquished into their private lounges The megachurch and state relations might appear complexified and mutually beneficial the knack with which some Africa's megachurches pastors churches churches dribble and meander through this midfield constantly calls to mind the Megachurches Megachurches claim of divine imprimatur and the future of its pentecostality Making Sense of Death Gerry Cox, Robert Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of registered nurses in the northeast United States and loss and growth in the seasons of life
