Making Light Of The Times:

Making Light of the Times Ernest Louis Meyer, 1928 The Photographic Times ,1906 Light as Experience and Imagination from Paleolithic to Roman Times David S. Herrstrom, 2017-09-26 This book is an interdisciplinary synthesis and interpretation about the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from Paleolithic to Roman times Humanistic in spirit and in its handling of facts it marshals a substantial body of scholarship to develop an explication of light as a central even dramatic reality of human existence and experience in diverse cultural settings David S Herrstrom underscores our intimacy with light not only its constant presence in our life but its insinuating character Focusing on our encounters with light and ways of making sense of these this book is concerned with the personal and cultural impact of light exploring our resistance to and acceptance of light Its approach is unique The book s true subject is the individual s relationship with light rather than the investigation of light s essential nature It tells the story of light seducing individuals down through the ages Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions to it as reflected in art Paleolithic through Roman architecture Egyptian Grecian Roman mythology and religion Paleolithic Egyptian and literature e g Akhenaten Plato Aeschylus Lucretius John the Evangelist Plotinus and Augustine This book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light s character No individual experience of light is truer than any other none improves on any previous experience of light s tidal pull on us And the wondrous variety of these encounters has yielded a richly layered tapestry of human experience By its broad scope and interdisciplinary approach this pioneering book is without precedent Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual s relationship with light rather than the investigation of light s essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light s character No individual experience of light being truer than any other The Photographic Times-bulletin ,1903 Deep Love in Light Times Yi ChengJiXu, 2020-09-15 He liked her loved her doted on her let her feel the love of a fairy tale She thought that she had found the love of her life that she had put on a beautiful wedding dress and was waiting to become his bride but this wedding had already changed hands She had fallen from the peak of happiness into the abyss of ridicule and all of this stemmed from that one sentence She had repaid his hatred with her own blood and pain but he could never find the joy of having her again Where would he go when he and she had the truth The Law Times Reports ,1859 Faith for the

Times: From the Shadows into the Marvelous Light Faith for the Times: From the Shadows into the Marvelous Light, 2023-05-13 Our nation is currently in a unique and perilous time of division which includes our communities of faith Unique in the sense that issues of faith are being used by many secular and sacred sources to exploit the divide of our nation further and perilous because if left unchecked our nation could move to civil war Faith for the Times first describes the political social and civil issues facilitating the division in our nation s faith communities Following those descriptions are discussions of methods to heal those divides supported by anecdotes and experiences from over thirty years of ministry in various communities of faith in the Washington D C area Divisions in our nation exist in several ways but in this writing they are generalized into the three areas of political social and civil What is most alarming about our times is that these divisions combine with the many existing divisions in the communities of faith in our nation There have always been divisions between types of faith and there have been many conflicts between them throughout history But it seems that since the turn of the century beginning with the September 11 2001 attacks on New York City that conflicts among some of the major faiths such as Christianity Judaism and Islam have escalated What s more with the accelerated political polarization of the Evangelical Christian community divides between denominations of the Evangelical church have grown In the first part of this writing the author describes the dividing of our nation and the role faith has played in that division This is done by borrowing a technique used by David in the writing of his Psalms using the term shadows The author applies that term as the shadows of faith as an illustration how our faith influences our political social and civil expressions of living The intent with Part 1 of this writing is to expose the complexity of the divide in our nation and how faith interacts with that divide In Part 2 the author addresses how to close the divide by faith There is no pretense in this writing to suggest a nation as big and diverse as ours could be united with this one writing But there is a confidence portrayed in the text concerning what God has done in the author s faith journey that allows the writing of these words and ideas as something to ponder and perhaps light a spark to begin the healing process required of our nation The reader is invited to embrace what may be a new conversation of faith A faith that focuses more on what we have in common with other people of faith than what divides us That passion has been birthed in the author because of a faith journey not of his choosing but by his experience Being raised Catholic the author converted to Protestant as a young adult Moving through several denominations by experiences of faith the result has been a faith and a passion to impact people for God not for a particular denomination The reader is invited to join this celebration of faith with the author
