Making Meaning Rubens Landscapes:

Making and Meaning - Rubens's Landscapes Peter Paul Rubens, Christopher Brown, 1997 Rubens's Landscapes Christopher Brown, 1998-08 Christopher Brown takes a fresh look at the development of Rubens's landscape paintings re-examining their chronology and their construction and reconsidering the works in the context of Rubens's life and artistic concerns. He begins his survey by placing the landscapes in the tradition of Flemish landscape painting in particular showing their relationship to the work of Pieter Bruegel the Elder whose Flight into Egypt was owned by Rubens. He looks at Rubens's early landscapes completed in the years following his return from Italy in 1608 immediately raising one of the principal themes of the book: how these paintings were made. A chapter is devoted to Landscape with Het Steen in which he describes Rubens's life as a country gentleman, his purchase of the estate of Het Steen and the time he spent there in the 1630s with his second wife and young family and discusses the composition of Landscape with Het Steen and its pendant, the Landscape with a Rainbow now in the Wallace Collection, London. He also considers Rubens's pastoral landscapes of the 1630s showing how their mood was influenced by classical literature. Rubens's working methods, his drawing from nature, his adaptation of landscape motifs in the studio, his use of oil sketches are compared with contemporary landscape practice and in a chapter on the making of the landscapes Dr Brown describes the construction, preparation and the ground of the panels Rubens used for his landscape paintings and the panelmakers who made them. Finally he considers the last years at Het Steen and the ways in which Rubens's essentially private landscape paintings were made known during his lifetime and later, for example through engravings, and looks at the influence of these works on British painters, particularly Gainsborough and Constable.

Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens (Flemish 1577-1640) in light of early modern traditions of eloquence, particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius (1547-1606). Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period (1600-08), this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise. As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters, the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing, a Senecan approach to eclecticism, a commitment to emulation, and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles. Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing. Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children (Los Angeles, Getty Museum) and Kneeling Man (Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen), these close-looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker. Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age

Deviant Landscapes Fivos Papadimitriou, Olaf Kühne, 2025-04-11 Deviant landscapes can be physical or digital or outright fictitious Whatever their nature or context they do not conform to normality Deviant landscapes can be encountered on the face of the earth on computer screens in people's minds This anthology presents varying perspectives on deviant landscapes widening the theoretical framework of spatial and landscape research by delving into the hitherto almost uncharted realm of deviant landscapes in a way that is missing in the academic literature It exposes a variety of perspectives on deviant landscapes from disparate scientific domains i.e. geography literary studies sociology game studies cultural studies and delivers useful insights into the diverse theoretical approaches that can be adopted to examine such landscapes neopragmatist social constructivist scientometric art theoretical etc working in various media individual works of art and non Western cultures as well as art education writing about art problems of copyright and issues concerning the buying and selling of art This title will be periodically updated The Long Picturesque, or Unraveling the Rules of Art Patricia Emison, 2024-10-16 This book provides a Renaissance art historian's view of how the picturesque aesthetic developed from roots in the sixteenth century mostly in painting but with ramifications for printmaking landscape design and architecture and further how the picturesque aesthetic fundamentally changed the relationship between art and nature between viewer and image The book's argument is based on wide reading of obscure yet piquant critical texts mostly of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries together with consideration of varied works of art ranging from Fra Angelico to Raphael and Michelangelo and from Rubens to Canaletto and from James Gibbs to Jacques Demy all of them studied not for their place in the history of style but for their spatial imagination "Rubens, Vel?uez, and the King of Spain " Larry Silver, 2017-07-05 This study provides a new analysis of the pictorial ensemble of the Torre de la Parada the hunting lodge of King Philip IV of Spain Created in the late 1630s by a group of artists led by Peter Paul Rubens this cycle of mythological imagery and hunting scenes was completed by Diego Vel?uez Despite the lack of a written program surviving works provide eloquent testimony of several basic themes that embody Neostoic ideals of self restraint and prudent governance While Rubens set the moral tone through his serio comic Ovidian narratives Vel?uez added an important grace note with his portraits of ancient philosophers and royals and fools of the court This study is the first to consider in depth their joint artistic contributions and shared ambition Through analysis of individual works the authors situate these pictorial inventions within broader intellectual currents in both Spanish Flanders and Spain especially in the advice literature and drama presented to the Spanish king Moreover they point to the lasting resonance of Torre de la Parada for Vel?uez especially within his late masterworks Las Meninas and Las Hilanderas Ultimately this study illuminates the dialogical nature of this ensemble in which Rubens and Vel?uez offer a set of complementary views on subjects ranging from the nature of classical gods to the role of art as a mirror of the prince The Collected Letters of Sir George and Lady Beaumont to the Wordsworth Family, 1803-1829 Jessica Fay, 2021 This edition presents and fully contextualizes an archive of letters that reveal the creative and personal significance of the friendship between William Wordsworth and Sir George Beaumont Spanning twenty six years this inter familial correspondence comprises discussion of literature and painting gardening and theatre politics and religion grief hope and aspiration Practising Places Mercedes Maroto Camino, 2021-11-08 Practising Places offers an original insight into the culture of early modern Spain in so far as the various fields explored here are seldom juxtaposed Literary texts urban views and paintings are analysed side by side in a hybrid cultural interpretation that is as cartographic as it is architectural historical or literary This book presents a thick description which focuses on the first picaresque novel Lazarillo de Tormes the autobiographical writing of Teresa of Avila and the urban views of Spanish towns drafted or painted by Joris Hoefnagel Anton Van den Wyngaerde and El Greco These works embody and challenge the sense of grandeur and subsequent notion of crisis which inhere in the period In this way they simultaneously highlight and question the centralism and social control of the absolutist Habsburg rules illustrating the claim that space is as much a social product as a social producer
