Making Of The Royal Pavilion Brighton:

The Making of the Royal Pavilion, Brighton John Morley, 1984
Morley, 2003-12-05 The Royal Pavilion Brighton is one of the most famous and opulent royal extravaganzas in existence This book reproduces all the important surviving designs used and unused for the exterior and interior of the Pavilion It reveals the great variety of brilliant exotic schemes devised for its construction and decoration It was first built in 1787 for the Prince of Wales as a neo classical marine villa and by the time the Prince became king in 1820 it had grown into the extraordinary Indian Chinese Fantasy it is today The projects for the exterior include the pretty but chaste designs of Henry Holland and the wilder Indian and Chinese fantasies of William Porden and Humphry Repton The interior designs executed mainly by the Crace firm of decorators and Robert Jones all firmly controlled by the king are always splendid and often astonishing they include schemes for whole rooms as well as for individual details such as windows skylights doorways carpets and curtains The range includes the barbaric chinoiserie of the 1802 04 period the enchanting rococo chinoiserie of 1815 17 and the opulent richness of the final scheme The techniques used include illusionistic painting marbling faux graining faux skies often in a vein of high fantasy The 308 illustrations of which 111 are reproduced in colour capture all the variety magnificence and exotic luxury of the extraordinary building

Qing Encounters Petra ten-Doesschate Chu, Ning Ding, 2015-10-01 Qing Encounters Artistic Exchanges between China and the West examines how the contact between China and Europe in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries transformed the arts on both sides of the East West divide The essays in the volume reveal the extent to which images artifacts and natural specimens were traded and copied and how these materials inflected both cultures visions of novelty and pleasure battle and power and ways of seeing and representing Artists and craftspeople on both continents borrowed and adapted forms techniques and modes of representation producing deliberate meaningful and complex new creations By considering this reciprocity from both Eastern and Western perspectives Qing Encounters offers a new and nuanced understanding of this critical period

The Age of Improvement, 1783-1867 Asa Briggs, 2014-06-17 The Age of Improvement has long established itself as a classic of modern historical writing Widely read and quoted it has had a unique influence on teaching and research This second edition draws on the great volume of new research produced by Lord Briggs amongst others since its original publication The book stresses both the underlying unity and the rich variety of the age and raises fundamental issues about a period of crucial change in British history industrialisation war constitutional change and the attitudes of politicians towards it political development and not least society and culture In the background are the new economic powers based on the development of a coal and iron technology in the foreground new social and political problems and new ways of tackling them The author also discusses perceptions of and reactions to changing circumstances the influence of religion and science on national life and changing styles in art and literature The story ends not with a full stop but with a question mark Could improvement be maintained

Could balance and progress continue to be reconciled

Hidden Patrons Amy Boyington, 2023-11-02 An enduring myth of Georgian architecture is that it was purely the pursuit of male architects and their wealthy male patrons History states that it was men who owned grand estates and houses who commissioned famous architects and who embarked upon elaborate architectural schemes Hidden Patrons dismantles this myth revealing instead that women were at the heart of the architectural patronage of the day exerting far more influence and agency than has previously been recognised Architectural drawing and design discourse and patronage were interests shared by many women in the eighteenth century Far from being the preserve of elite men architecture was a passion shared by both sexes intellectually and practically as long as they possessed sufficient wealth and autonomy In an accessible readable account Hidden Patrons uncovers the role of women as important patrons and designers of architecture and interiors in eighteenth century Britain and Ireland Exploring country houses Georgian townhouses villas estates and gardens it analyses female patronage from across the architectural spectrum and examines the work of a range of pioneering women from grand duchesses to businesswomen to lowly courtesans Re-examining well known Georgian masterpieces alongside lesser known architectural gems Hidden Patrons unearths unseen archival material to provide a fascinating new view of the role of women in the architecture of the Georgian era

Travel and Tourism in Britain, 1700-1914 Vol 3 Susan Barton, Allan Brodie, 2021-12-16 The British led the way in holidaymaking This four volume primary resource collection brings together a diverse range of texts on the various forms of transport used by tourists the destinations they visited the role of entertainments and accommodation and how these affected the way that tourism evolved over two centuries Volume 3 Seaside Holidays Over the course of the seventeenth century medical writers and practitioners came to realise the health giving properties of the seaside environment By the early eighteenth century this scientific interest was spreading to wealthy people in search of a rest cure Bathing in the sea drinking the waters and spending time in the bracing air became a widespread activity and by the nineteenth century this had expanded thanks to extensive advertising and publicity about its beneficial effects Specific forms of entertainment also developed such as piers aquaria winter gardens and cinemas

Architecture in Britain, 1530 to 1830 John Summerson, John Newenham Summerson, Sir, 1993-01-01 The author charts the development of architectural theory and practice from Elizabeth I to George IV Questions of style technology and the social framework are resolved as separable but always essential components of the building worlds

Asian Empire and British Knowledge U. Hillemann, 2009-10-15 British knowledge about China changed fundamentally in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Rather than treating these changes in British understanding as if Anglo Sino relations were purely bilateral this study looks at how British imperial networks in India and Southeast Asia were critical mediators in the British encounter of China

The Tastemakers Diana Davis, 2020-07-07 An examination of the development role and influence of the British decorative art dealers who invented an Anglo Gallic style for elite interiors In this volume Diana Davis demonstrates how London dealers invented a new and visually splendid decorative style that combined the contrasting tastes of two nations Departing from the conventional narrative that depicts dealers as purveyors of antiquarianism Davis repositions them as innovators who were key to transforming old art objects from ancien régime France into cherished antiques and equally as creators of new and modified French inspired furniture bronze work and porcelain The resulting old new and reconfigured objects merged aristocratic French eighteenth century taste with nineteenth century British preference and they were prized by collectors who displayed them side by side in palatial interiors of the period The Tastemakers analyzes dealer made furnishings from the nineteenth century patron's perspective and in the context of the interiors for which they were created contending that early dealers deliberately formulated a new aesthetic with its own objects language and value Davis examines a wide variety of documents to piece together the shadowy world of these dealers who emerge center stage as traders makers and tastemakers From Stone to Paper Chanchal B.

Dadlani,2018-01-01 This groundbreaking volume examines how the Mughal Empire used architecture to refashion its identity and stage authority in the 18th century as it struggled to maintain political power against both regional challenges and the encroaching British Empire Carpets and Rugs of Europe and America Sarah B. Sherrill,1996 Filled with hundreds of gorgeous examples this book is a comprehensive study of European and American carpets and rugs from the Middle Ages to the present day The rich and inventive tradition of European and American carpets continues to inspire artists designers and decorators while collectors and historians increasingly value carpets as important works of art In this comprehensive volume Sarah Sherrill examines Western carpet design and production from the Middle Ages to the present in styles that range from magnificent palatial creations to delightful folk designs With hundreds of dazzling illustrations Sherrill's authoritative text includes chapters on Moorish weavers and the golden age of carpets in Spain the exquisite carpets of the Savonnerie Aubusson and Beauvais in France productions from Moorfields Exeter and Axminster in England the intriguing but little studied rugs of Eastern European countries the charming and resourceful rugs of America and an important chapter on modern designs that offers an extensive survey of rugs created by leading artists and architects of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Sherrill's stimulating text based on years of research brims with interesting new findings not only on the history and design of these works but also technological developments that had an often unrecognized effect on rug design and production Supplementing the hundreds of reproductions of carpets are many views of the lavish rooms for which they were designed as well as brilliant watercolor carpet designs technical drawings clarifying weave and knot structures and maps making this an indispensable resource for historians collectors and anyone interested in beautiful furnishings and textiles Sarah B Sherrill an authority on Western and Eastern carpets and rugs has published many articles on the subject over the last two decades She is on the faculty of The Bard Graduate Center for Studies in the Decorative Arts in New York and has taught in the graduate program in the history of decorative arts at the Cooper Hewitt National Design Museum Parsons School of Design in New York She is editor in chief of The Bard Graduate Center's journal Studies in the Decorative

Arts and was an editor for over twenty years at the magazine Antiques 400 illustrations Architecture Henry-Russell Hitchcock,1987-01-01 This book examines a period which is far more than a prelude to the age of steel and concrete The first half century culminated in the bold iron and glass of the Crystal Palace There follows the creation of the modern styles of the era based on traditions of the past and finally in the 20th century Art Nouveau and the modern architects in their generations Perret Wright Gropius Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and others in many parts of the world Transactions of the Asiatic Society of Japan Asiatic Society of Japan,2012 List of transactions v 1 41 in v 41 The Dishonorable Miss DeLancey Carolyn Miller,2017-10-24 Will a damaged reputation and desire for society s approval thwart the legacy of grace Tainted by scandal and forced to leave London for the quieter Brighton countryside the Honorable Miss Clara DeLancey is a shadow of her former society self She s lost the man she loved to another and in a culture that has no patience for self pity is struggling with depression A chance encounter brings her a healing friendship with the sisters of an injured naval captain But Clara s society mama is appalled at the new company she s keeping Captain Benjamin Kemsley is not looking for a wife But his gallant spirit won t let him ignore the penniless viscount s daughter not when she so obviously needs assistance to keep moving forward from day to day Can he protect his heart and still keep her safe When they re pushed into the highest echelons of society at the Prince Regent s Brighton Pavilion this mismatched couple must decide if family honor is more important than their hopes Can they right the wrongs of the past and find future happiness together without finances family support or royal favor The Dishonorable Miss DeLancey is full of the captivating flawed characters fascinating historical details and masterful writing that Carolyn Miller s fans have come to know in The Elusive Miss Ellison and The Captivating Lady Charlotte If you love Lori Wick Georgette Heyer and other clean wholesome Regency romance you ll love this third book in the Regency Brides A Legacy of Grace series Forging Romantic China Peter J. Kitson,2013-11-21 The first major cultural study to focus exclusively on this decisive period in modern British Chinese relations Based on extensive archival investigations Peter J Kitson shows how British knowledge of China was constructed from the writings and translations of a diverse range of missionaries diplomats travellers traders and literary men and women during the Romantic period The new perceptions of China that it gave rise to were mediated via a dynamic print culture to a diverse range of poets novelists essayists dramatists and reviewers including Jane Austen Thomas Percy William Jones S T Coleridge George Colman Robert Southey Charles Lamb William and Dorothy Wordsworth and others informing new British understandings and imaginings of China on the eve of the Opium War of 1839 42 Kitson aims to restore China to its true global presence in our understandings of the culture and literature of Britain in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor,Heather Akou,Nicola Stylianou,2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion

Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities
