Mathias Grünewald and Other Old Masters in Colmar Pierre Schmitt,1961      Mathias Grünewald and Other Old Masters in Colmar Pierre Schmitt,1963      The Quasi-dramatic St. John Passions from Scandinavia and Their Medieval Background Audrey Ekdahl Davidson,1981      A Selection of Drawings by Old Masters in the Museum Collections Victoria and Albert Museum. Department of Engraving, Illustration, and Design,1921      Of 'truths Impossible to Put in Words' Rose-Carol Washton Long,2009 This volume of essays relate Max Beckmann s work to the tangible circumstances of its production and reception The essays contextualise aspects of Beckmann s early middle and late career by way of detailed reference to contemporary music film philosophy theatre history sports and exile      The Many Faces of Art Forgery William Casement,2022-04-17 P rovides a treasure trove of information that will engage readers intrigued by but new to the subject of art forgery as well as those with an art or art history background Booklist Starred Review Forgery is a provocative presence in the art world that captures attention in the press and inspires books about the exploits of famous fraudsters as well as scholarly articles and monographs But missing until now has been a big picture look at the phenomenon of art forgery The Many Faces of Art Forgery provides a unique treatment that features historical highlights philosophical insights psychological profiles economic theories and legal statutes and cases Key features include The story of art forgery from antiquity to the present including 80 named forgers the tricks of their trade and the social forces that ensure the existence of their enterprise How scientific analysis is both effective and limited in exposing art fakes Multiple definitions for the term forgery as applied to art The effect on authenticity in legal terms philosophical terms and public opinion when an artwork undergoes extensive restoration or artists hire surrogates to make their works or they appropriate images from other artists or styles from indigenous cultures Forgers mentalities their motivations rationalizations and strategies The ethics of art forgery from criminality to esteem for fooling experts The possibility and aesthetic worth of a perfect fake In all readers will understand the substantial place forgery occupies in the realm of art as well as that what constitutes authentic versus inauthentic is not always clear cut nor are legal and moral judgments about forgery In conveying this message the author provides a wealth of information in an accessible and engaging style suitable for experts and general readers alike

The Periodical ,1896      Adult Catalog: Authors Los Angeles County Public Library,1970      A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier,2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered

when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history Old Master Drawings Henry Scipio Reitlinger, 1922 The Early Teutonic, Italian, and French Masters Augustus Henry Keane, 1879 The New Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1987 Legacies of Modernism P. McBride, R. McCormick, M. Zagar, 2007-01-22 Between 1890 and 1950 modernist art and culture set out to challenge century old notions of the individual and the community culture and politics morality and freedom placing into question the very foundations of Western civilization The essays in this volume present a novel assessment of various manifestations of modernism in Germany and Scandinavia by posing the question of its critical and political impact beyond traditional polarities such as right vs left illiberalism vs Enlightenment apolitical vs engaged In drawing on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives including literary studies art history film and visual studies urban studies musicology political theory and the history of science and technology the essays in this volume reexamine modernism's bold inquiry into areas such as the relation of art to technology and mass politics the limits of liberal democracy the reconceptualization of urban spaces and the realignment of traditional art forms following the rise of new media such as film The volume's contributors share a belief in the timeliness of modernism's critical impulse for a contemporary age confronted with ethical and political dilemmas that the modernists first articulated and to which they attempted to respond The Faustian Bargain Jonathan Petropoulos, 2000-03-30 Nazi art looting has been the subject of enormous international attention in recent years and the topic of two history bestsellers Hector Feliciano's The Lost Museum and Lynn Nicholas's The Rape of Europa But such books leave us wondering What made thoughtful educated artistic men and women decide to put their talents in the service of a brutal and inhuman regime This question is the starting point for The Faustian Bargain Jonathan Petropoulos's study of the key figures in the art world of Nazi Germany Petropoulos follows the careers of these prominent individuals who like Faust that German archetype chose to pursue artistic ends through collaboration with diabolical forces Readers meet Ernst Buchner the distinguished museum director and expert on Old Master paintings who repatriated the Van Eyck brother's Ghent altarpiece to Germany and Karl Haberstock an art dealer who filled German museums with works bought virtually at gunpoint from Jewish collectors Robert Scholz the leading art critic in the Third Reich became an officer in the chief art looting unit in France and Kajetan Muhlmann a leading art historian was probably the single most prolific art plunderer in the war and arguably in history Finally there is Arno Breker a gifted artist who exchanged his modernist style for monumental realism and became Hitler's favorite sculptor If it is striking that these educated men became part of the Nazi machine it is more remarkable that most of them rehabilitated their careers and lived comfortably after the war Petropoulos has discovered a network of these rehabilitated experts that flourished in the postwar period and he argues that this is a key to the tens of thousands of looted artworks that are still missing today Based on previously unreleased information and recently declassified documents The

Faustian Bargain is a gripping read about the art world during this period and a fascinating examination of the intense relationship between culture and politics in the Third Reich

Max Pechstein: The Rise and Fall of Expressionism Bernhard Fulda, Aya Soika, 2012-10-30 Max Pechstein 1881 1955 is one of the most prominent German artists of the twentieth century not least because of his crucial role in the breakthrough of German Expressionism This long overdue biography combines the portrayal of an outstanding artistic personality with the story of an individual German who struggled through the political upheavals of his time Pechstein's work is presented in the cultural context of museum politics and art associations art dealers and critics market forces and cultural trends
