

The Stanbrook Abbey Press

A Bibliography and Checklist

The Stanbrook Abbey Press is Britain's oldest surviving private press. Founded in 1876 to serve the needs of the Benedictine communities, it has a long tradition of consulting eminent typographers from Emery Walker and Sydney Cockerell to Jan van Krimpen and John Dreyfus. Since 1955, when Dame Hildelith Cumming became Printer, the Press has produced work which entitles it to a place among the world's great private presses.

This Bibliography and Checklist provides a unique record of the output of the Press over more than a century. From 1876 to 1955 there is a checklist of titles with brief bibliographical details. From 1956 full descriptive entries for the books, pamphlets and folders designed and printed by Dame Hildelith and her assistants are provided. Dame Hildelith has added her comments about the books and the circumstances surrounding their printing to many of the entries. She also contributes an Introduction tracing the changing fortunes of the Press since the publication of the history of the Press in 1970. David Butcher, who compiled the Bibliography of the Whittington Press (described as 'a model of how such things should be done' when it appeared in 1982), provides an Introduction to the work of the Press since 1876 and a detailed assessment of its publications since 1956.

The edition is illustrated with photographs, facsimiles of pages from Stanbrook Abbey publications, and blocks used in the original books. 110 copies have tipped-in sample pages printed at Stanbrook, including leaves from the original editions. 30 copies are accompanied by a portfolio with additional material printed by Dame Hildelith since 1916, including illuminated or decorated items. The edition of 300 copies comprises: Edition A, 15 de luxe copies specially bound with a portfolio, at about £950; Edition B, 15 copies bound in full leather with a portfolio, at about £450; Edition C, 100 copies quarter-bound in vellum with tipped-in specimen pages, at about £250; and Edition D, 110 copies quarter-bound in buckram, at about £75.

To be published by The Whittington Press in 1989.

Cinema Jerome F Shapiro unearths the unspoken legacy of the bombing of Nagasaki and Hiroshima and its complex aftermath in American and Japanese cinema According to Shapiro a Bomb film is never simply an exercise in ideology or paranoia He examines hundreds of films like Godzilla Dr Strangelove and The Terminator as a body of work held together by ancient narrative and symbolic traditions that extol survival under devastating conditions Drawing extensively on both English language and Japanese language sources Shapiro argues that such films not only grapple with our nuclear anxieties but also offer signs of hope that humanity is capable of repairing a damaged and divided world www atomicbombcinema com

Animals and Women Carol J. Adams, Josephine Donovan, 1995-11-14 Animals and Women is a collection of pioneering essays that explores the theoretical connections between feminism and animal defense Offering a feminist perspective on the status of animals this unique volume argues persuasively that both the social construction and oppressions of women are inextricably connected to the ways in which we comprehend and abuse other species Furthermore it demonstrates that such a focus does not distract from the struggle for women s rights but rather contributes to it This wide ranging multidisciplinary anthology presents original material from scholars in a variety of fields as well as a rare early article by Virginia Woolf Exploring the leading edge of the species gender boundary it addresses such issues as the relationship between abortion rights and animal rights the connection between woman battering and animal abuse and the speciesist basis for much sexist language Also considered are the ways in which animals have been regarded by science literature and the environmentalist movement A striking meditation on women and wolves is presented as is an examination of sexual harassment and the taxonomy of hunters and hunting Finally this compelling collection suggests that the subordination and degradation of women is a prototype for other forms of abuse and that to deny this connection is to participate in the continued mistreatment of animals and women Energy Research Abstracts ,1989 Antiquarian Book Monthly Review ,1988
