Esler, 2023-03-13 The notion of effortlessness is central to the self understanding of the Tibetan contemplative tradition known as Dzogchen This book explores this key notion from a variety of perspectives highlighting the distinctive role it plays in the Dzogchen approach's doctrinal architecture and meditative programme. The book's focus is on the early development of the Dzogchen tradition especially as codified in a set of hitherto unstudied commentaries by the 10th century scholar and meditation master Nubchen Sangye Yeshe. A full annotated translation of the commentaries is provided along with an edition of the Tibetan texts on facing pages. The Journal of the International Association of Buddhist Studies International Association of Buddhist Studies, 1994

Yogacara Texts: Indo-Tibetan Sources of Dzogchen Mahamudra Rodney Devenish, 2013-09-24 The Yogacara Doctrine teaches one fundamental truth namely that all beings are Buddha-sattva. Buddha-evam or in other words all beings are aspects of one all-embracing absolute awareness were they but to know it. This book sets a context for the study and meditation on ten pivotal texts of Yogacara. The source texts translated from a practice perspective derive from the Indo-Tibetan mahasiddha tradition and are presented with an ecumenical approach. As this collection of pithy Yogacara works will readily prove to the reader the ancient Practice Tradition of the Yogin rnal bhyor pa i sgrub brgyud is based on a clearly active realization of the essential nature of mind and consciousness gained through years of intensive examination and reflection. Yogacara approach advocates a dynamic form of meditation that is neither suppressive nor lethargic. The guide to this attainment the mechanism that sharpens the mind's penetrative and illuminative qualities is metaphysical inquiry.

Meditation Differently, Phenomenological-psychological Aspects of Tibetan Buddhist (Mahāmudrā and Snying-thig) Practices from Original Tibetan Sources Herbert V. Guenther, 1992 Despite the interest in meditation few works have studied what meditation means within the original traditions. Meditation Differently presents a translation of an important Tibetan work which contrasts and compares two central traditions of Buddhist meditative practice the Mahamudra and the rDzogs chen particularly the sNying thing version. This translation is supplemented by a detailed commentary based on original Tibetan sources by Dr Guenther an eminent scholar of Buddhism and modern thought. This critical commentary is a hermeneutical and phenomenological study of the key ideas in the understanding of being and experience utilizing developments in modern thinking to bring out the nuances of Buddhist thinking.

On the Nature of Consciousness Harry T. Hunt, 1995-01-01 Harry Hunt begins by reviewing the renewed interest in ordinary consciousness and in altered and transpersonal states of consciousness. He then presents competing views of consciousness in cognition neurophysiology and animal psychology developing a view of perceptual awareness as the core of consciousness potentially shared across species.
