G. [With Preface to Vol. 1. by T. Owen and J. Barron.] Thomas GOODWIN (D.D.),1683 Life and Building in the Gospel of John Witness Lee,2024-03-25 The Gospel of John occupies a special place in the Bible because it focuses on life Its writer the apostle John had a specific burden related to life and building and his ministry was fully focused on these two matters His Gospel reveals that God is manifested as the Word and becomes the Spirit to enter into us in order to be our life but this marvelous fact is not the goal it is a procedure to achieve an ultimate goal The Gospel of John says that the Word who is God became flesh and tabernacled among us Life is the procedure and the tabernacle is the goal God came to be our life so that He might tabernacle in us and among us that we might receive Him as life for the building up of the house of God The Expositor Samuel Cox,Sir William Robertson Nicoll,James Moffatt,1883 From Nothing Ian A. McFarland,2014-08-22 Too often the doctrine of creation has been made to serve limited or pointless ends like the well worn arguments between science and faith over the question of human and cosmic origins Given this history some might be tempted to ignore the theology of creation thinking it has nothing new or substantive to say They would be wrong In this stimulating volume Ian A McFarland shows that at the heart of the doctrine of creation lies an essential truth about humanity we are completely dependent on God Apart from this realization little else about us makes sense McFarland demonstrates that this radical dependence is a consequence of the doctrine of creatio ex nihilo creation from nothing Taking up the theological consequences of creation theodicy and Providence the author provides a detailed and innovative constructive theology of creation Drawing on the biblical text classical sources and contemporary thought From Nothing proves that a robust theology of creation is a necessary correlate to the Christian confession of redemption in Jesus Christ
